In the Shade of a Shadow of Reason Verna Lee Hutton-Ely, 2011-10-06 Lucy Cavanagh has experienced periods of missing time since her childhood They have estranged her from her friends and family who are unable to cope with things out of the ordinary and who refuse to believe her explanations that she does not know what is happening to her Once she shares her secret even the people in the Christian churches she has attended end up judging her as insane or worse demon possessed It is not until she finds herself in a meadow totally unaware of how she has gotten there and comes face to face with a handsome stranger who claims to believe her that she finds the love and acceptance she has been longing for But this man has secrets of his own secrets that she is unwilling to believe Can love conquer disbelief A mixture of fate and fantasy pushes the boundaries of Lucy's faith until she questions her own sanity The Drones WTF Publishing, 2008-03-01 Universes John Leslie, 2002-01-22 Universes discusses the alleged evidence of fine tuning mechanisms by which a varied set of Universes might be generated and whether belief in God could be preferable to accepting universes in vast numbers

When the Floods Came Clare Morrall, 2016-02-11 In a world prone to violent flooding Britain ravaged 20 years earlier by a deadly virus has been largely cut off from the rest of the world Survivors are few and far between most of them infertile Children the only hope for the future are a rare commodity For 22 year old Roza Polanski life with her family in their isolated tower block is relatively comfortable She's safe happy enough But when a stranger called Aashay Kent arrives everything changes At first he's a welcome addition his magnetism drawing the Polanskis out of their shells promising an alternative to a lonely existence But Roza can't shake the feeling that there's more to Aashay than he's letting on Is there more to life beyond their isolated bubble Is it true that children are being kidnapped And what will it cost to find out Clare Morrall author of the Man Booker Prize shortlisted Astonishing Splashes of Colour creates a startling vision of the future in a world not so very far from our own and a thrilling story of suspense When Shadows Fall J. T. Ellison, 2014 After suffering a terrible personal loss Dr Samantha Owens is settling into a new job at Georgetown University when she receives a letter from a dead man asking to solve his murder As she investigates the man's death she is pulled into a twenty year old mystery involving a kidnapped child as well as the present day death of Timothy Savage Creeker Linda Scott DeRosier, 2002-06-21 Linda Sue Preston was born on a feather bed in the upper room of her Grandma Emmy's log house in the hills of eastern Kentucky More than fifty years later Linda Scott DeRosier has come to believe that you can take a woman out of Appalachia but you can't take Appalachia out of the woman DeRosier's humorous and poignant memoir is the story of an educated and cultured woman who came of age in Appalachia She remains unabashedly honest about and proud of her mountain heritage Now a college professor decades and notions removed from the creeks and hollows DeRosier knows that her roots run deep in her memory and language and in her approach to the world DeRosier describes an Appalachia of complexity and beauty rarely seen by outsiders Hers was a close knit world she says she was probably eleven or twelve years old before she ever spoke to a stranger She lovingly remembers the unscheduled day long visits to friends and family when visitors cheerfully joined in the day s chores of stringing beans or bedding out sweet potatoes No advance planning was needed for such trips Residents of Two Mile Creek were like family and everyone was delighted to see each other wherever whenever and for however long Creeker is a story of relationships the challenges and consequences of choice and the impact of the past on the present It also recalls one woman s struggle to make and keep a sense of self while remaining loyal to the people and traditions that sustained her along life s way Told with wit candor and zest this is Linda Scott DeRosier s answer to the question familiar in Appalachia Who are your people

We Are Agora Byron Reese,2023-12-12 Discover a groundbreaking new way of thinking about life society and the future of our species that bridges science and human history Could humans unknowingly be a part of a larger superorganism one with its own motivations and goals one that is alive and conscious and has the power to shape the future of our species This is the fascinating theory from author and futurist Byron Reese who calls this human superorganism Agora In We Are Agora Reese starts by asking the question What is life and how did it form From there he looks at how multicellular life came about how consciousness emerged and how other superorganisms in nature have formed Then he poses eight big questions based on the Agora theory including If ants have colonies bees have hives and we have our bodies how does Agora manifest itself Does it have a body Can Agora explain things that happen that are both under our control and near universally undesirable such as war How can Agora theory explain long term progress we ve made in the world In this unique and ambitious work that spans all of human history and looks boldly into its future Reese melds science and history to look at the human species from a fresh new perspective Told with his characteristic wit and compulsive readability We Are Agora will give readers a better understanding of where we ve been where we re going and how our fates are intertwined

I You We Them, Vol. 1 Dan Gretton,2020-07-21 A powerful historical investigation into crimes against humanity and those who give the orders from the safety of their desks The Spectator A Washington Post Notable Nonfiction Book of the Year A Spectator UK Best Book of the Year I You We Them is an unprecedented study of the perpetrators of crimes against humanity the desk killers who ordered and directed some of the worst atrocities of the modern era From Albert Speer s complicity in Nazi barbarism to Royal Dutch Shell s role in the murders of Nigerian activist Ken Saro Wiwa and the rest of the Ogoni Nine Dan Gretton probes the depths of the figure who by giving orders uses paper or a phone or a computer to kill instead of a gun Over twenty years Gretton interviewed survivors and perpetrators and pored over archives and thousands of pages of testimony His insight into the psychology of the desk killer is contextualized by the journey he took to penetrate it Woven into the narrative are his contemplative interludes perspectives gleaned during walks in the woods reminiscences about a lost love and considerations of timeless moral conundrums The result is a genre bending work steeped as much in personal reflection as it is in literature and historical and psychological illumination A synthesis of history reportage and memoir I You We Them is the first volume of a groundbreaking journal of discovery that bears witness to and reckons with the largest and most pressing questions we face Gretton raises profoundly unsettling questions about the capacity for doing evil that exists within all of us and the ways in which the distancing effect of technology allows perpetrators to avoid thinking about the consequences of their actions Irish Times The subject is tremendously important in a time grown ever darker and ever more reminiscent of the darkest days in modern world history Kirkus Reviews A uniquely gripping journey around the landscapes of mass murder Philippe Sands author of East West Street On the Origins of Genocide and Crimes against Humanity Lucidity David Carnoy, 2017-02-07 A missing person and an attempted murder lead investigators to a shady scientific institute in this dark and twisted thriller The Oklahoman It s been twenty years since Stacey Walker disappeared and the case has gone cold But Menlo Park Police Detective Hank Madden has just been hired to heat it up again by a Silicon Valley executive who wants her body and her missing husband found Four months later on the opposite coast author Candace Epstein is pushed in front of a car near Central Park Her editor Max Fremmer becomes entangled in the investigation and starts digging into Candace s background growing increasingly suspicious about her connection to an Upper East Side institute that claims to research lucid dreaming Especially since its staff s stories never seem to add up Then an unexpected link emerges to Detective Madden s investigation in California As similarities arise between the cases Detective Madden and Fremmer forge an unlikely partnership to expose what misconduct lurks beneath the facade of the Lucidity Center but can they unravel the secret that links their investigations in time or are they only dreaming This stunning thriller will keep you guessing until the final satisfying jolt Spellbinding a standout Publishers Weekly starred review Carnoy weaves the two cases together in an artful manner The Oklahoman One powerhouse of a novel Allison Leotta author of The Last Good Girl A tour de force captures you from the very first page Harlan Coben author of The Match My Family and I Adam Gussow, 2025-02-25 An inspiring memoir about the author s lifelong quest for racial reconciliation the love that sustains his interracial family in contemporary Mississippi and the Yes we can hope for American renewal that fades after the deaths of Trayvon Martin Michael Brown and the despair driven rise of Black Lives Matter What has happened to the dream of beloved community embraced by Martin Luther King Jr and the civil rights movement of the early 1960s the vision of a just humane and colorblind America a nation of black and white together animated by the spirit of mutual respect and strengthened by the bonds of brotherly love As Adam Gussow shows in this urgently needed new book the dream although pressured on every front remains alive At the heart of My Family and I is Gussow s determination in King s terms to live out the true meaning of America s creed a quest for transracial brotherhood that takes him from a blues partnership forged on the streets of 1980s Harlem through graduate training at Princeton and decades later a transformative course on the blues literary tradition that he shares with inmates at Mississippi's notorious Parchman Farm Anchoring Gussow's quest is a story of enduring love a playful soulful interracial romance between the newly hired professor at Ole Miss and his soon to be wife Sherrie that blossoms with the birth of a musically gifted son Shaun As America explodes with protest and riots in the summer of 2020 after the death of George Floyd as social justice fundamentalists insist on stigmatizing whiteness and hardening the color line rather than healing the divisions that plague us Gussow is forced to fight for what he loves not just the sanctity of his family circle but King's dream of beloved community My Family and I gifts the reader with hope for a future beyond America's seemingly insoluble racial dilemmas Hearings United States. Congress. House. Committee on Un-American Activities, 1962 The Tale of Rose Moon Victoria Sarah Brookes, 2014-02-11 This is Victoria's first novel She was born 29 years ago in London but now resides in East Sussex Her hobbies include travel and exploring European cities She has a strong belief in the manifestation of the spirits of the dead Dogwood Summer Carolyn Avis, 2015-10-30 Two small southern towns find themselves connected by several unexplained tragedies That turn their peaceful country lifestyle into turmoil and suspicion One sadistic woman will do anything and kill anyone to get what she wants A step up to the top of the elite echelon Can detective Herschel stop her before she kills again It all comes together during Dogwood Summer the hottest part of the spring during the bloom of the Dogwood Tree
