Terrorism: Regarding this threat I will pay particular attention staying away from the most crowded spaces in Jakarta, avoiding to participate to protests and limiting my visit to the Mosques to the smallest number possible, according to my project timeline.

Rabies and health risk: I have taken all the precaution and vaccine that UQ health centre suggested me to minimise those risks.

Personal security: I will avoid leaving alone the accommodation during the night-time. To prevent scams and credit card/ATM fraud I will use my credit card sparingly and I will pay for my meals and other purchases preferably with cash.

Moreover, I will use my debit card only at ATMs and I will take with me only the debit cards I will expect to use. Finally, I am not planning to use motorcycles because of their extremely high risk.

Natural disaster: Indonesia is a seismic region demonstrated also by the recent eruption of Mount Agung in November 2017. Moreover Jakarta is a flood prone city due to the heavy rainfalls and the urbanisation of the city. Due to those factors, while my permanency in the city, it might be possible to facing with earthquakes and floods. To minimize those the impacts of those catastrophes, I will particularly aware during the monsoon season and I will check regularly the weather forecasts to understand where are the most problematic areas.
