Kaplan,Marjorie A. Hoover,Willard Burgess Moore,1986 Tell me what you eat and I will tell you what you are This oft quoted maximum from celebrated gastronome Jean Anthelme Brillat Savarin succinctly describes the connection between foodways and identity

First published in 1986 and now back in print The Minnesota Ethnic food Book explores the rich landscape of food and cultural heritage by describing the traditional foods and foodways of many of the state's ethnic groups Well researched and thoughtfully written essays describe the meals and customs that help families maintain ties to their past and sustain a rich sense of ethnic heritage in their day to day lives More than 150 authentic recipes collected from home cooks across the state impart the ethnic flavours of Minnesota Included are recipes for everyday tables such as Swedish meatballs Creole chicken and Among stir fried chicken and vegetables as well as foods for special occasions including Greek artichoke pilaf German sauerbraten and Danish custard cream layer cake The result is a carefully researched warm and fascinating book that is all about people foods and enduring values

Cooking Lessons Sherrie A. Inness, 2001-08-07 Meatloaf fried chicken Jell O cake because foods are so very common we rarely think about them much in depth The authors of Cooking Lessons however believe that food is deserving of our critical scrutiny and that such analysis yields many important lessons about American society and its values This book explores the relationship between food and gender Contributors draw from diverse sources both contemporary and historical and look at women from various cultural backgrounds including Hispanic traditional southern White and African American Each chapter focuses on a certain food teasing out its cultural meanings and showing its effect on women's identity and lives For example food has often offered women a traditional way to gain power and influence in their households and larger communities For women without access to other forms of creative expression preparing a superior cake or batch of fried chicken was a traditional way to display their talent in an acceptable venue On the other hand foods and the stereotypes attached to them have also been used to keep women and men too from different races ethnicities and social classes in their place
