Expanding Cinemas Eduardo Ledesma, 2024-12-01 This is the first book on experimental cinemas of Latin American and Spain to offer a comprehensive look at old and new technologies including Super 8 VHS cell phones virtual reality artificial intelligence and more From the militant films of the 1960s to today's expanded reality experiences filmmakers in Argentina Spain Cuba Colombia Brazil and Mexico have continually used alternative formats both to dialogue with international movements and to counter commercial cinematic trends To make this argument and cover this vast geographic and historical terrain Eduardo Ledesma adopts a transnational and intermedial approach examining exchanges and associations between cineastes to better understand how their films were created and circulated Ledesma works to untangle both the relations between media and the associations of experimental cinema to cultural phenomena such as diaspora exile displacement and immigration Throughout the book connections are further made to other global avant garde and alternative cinemas and formats including in the United States

A Manual of Instruction in Latin on the Basis of Allen & Greenough's Latin Method Joseph Henry Allen, 1878 A Manual of Instruction in Latin Joseph Henry Allen, 1880 Playing Utopia Benjamin Beil, Gundolf S. Freyermuth, Hanns Christian Schmidt, 2019-11-07 Media narratives inform our ideas of the future and Games are currently making a significant contribution to this medial reservoir On the one hand Games demonstrate a particular propensity for fantastic and futuristic scenarios On the other hand they often serve as an experimental field for the latest media technologies However while dystopias are part of the standard gaming repertoire Games feature utopias much less frequently Why This anthology examines playful utopias from two perspectives It investigates utopias in digital Games as well as utopias of the digital game that is the role of ludic elements in scenarios of the future

European Culture and the Media Ib Bondebjerg, Peter Golding, 2004-07-01 We are witnessing a dynamic reshaping of the European mediascape This has been underway for more than a decade since the fall of the Berlin wall in 1989 the growing impact of globalisation and the birth of new technologies and new media or the convergence between old and new media A new and more intense mediatisation of society and everyday life is emerging This is happening alongside the rapid reconstruction of the cultural and economic landscape of Europe itself In this transformation the communicative and ideological dimensions the digitalisation of technology and changes in culture the imaginary the discursive universe of politics and communication are all crucial areas for research The cultural industries film television books magazines entertainment and music but also the world of news actuality infotainment and the internet are key areas for the study of what we may begin to understand as a changing European culture in all its complexity and with all its differences and conflicts The media and the cultural industries are among the fastest growing sectors in the global economy

The Justice Demand Ronald J. J. Wong, 2024-08-27 Where is social justice in the Gospel Where is social justice in the Singapore Church These are the two main questions this book seeks to explore Through the recount of the author's journey of discovering social justice in the Bible on the streets of Singapore in the long history of the Singapore and global Church a survey of local Christians and interviews with Christian justice seekers and pastors this book challenges the Singapore Church as God's Kingdom community to reclaim biblical social justice as an integral facet of living the Gospel and manifesting God's Kingdom

Experiencing Immersion in Antiquity and Modernity Emma Cole, 2025-07-10 This book examines the links between experiencing immersion in antiquity and modernity Immersive experiences are big business within today's creative economy Forms range from immersive museum exhibitions theatrical performances art installations and experiences facilitated through virtual and augmented reality technologies Yet the idea of immersion is not new paintings sculpture and theatre have all been theorised historically in terms of illusion realism and immersion From antiquity to modernity there has been an interest in theorising the relationship between reality and virtual realities and in contemplating whether feeling present in an alternate universe is a sought after experience or something problematic and dangerous The chapters in this volume explore the warnings against immersion voiced by Plato and embodied in the figure of the Homeric sirens contrasted with the pro immersion perspectives championed by Aristotelian mimesis and embodied in the concept of enargeia The volume also examines the integration of the ancient world into immersive novels games museum exhibitions and theatrical performances Practice as Research contributions explore the benefits of this synergy from practitioner perspectives Contributors from diverse fields including classical reception studies art history game studies heritage studies and theatre studies approach the interplay between antiquity and modernity from varied standpoints Together they uncover previously unforeseen connections across disciplines and lay the groundwork for future research and additional classically inflected immersive experiences

Designing Retail Experience in the 21st Century D.J. Huppertz, 2025-04-03 Covering 2001 to today Designing Retail Experience in the 21st Century presents readers with a critical cross disciplinary perspective on retail design bringing together scholarship from design architecture branding cultural studies and social studies Our retail experience has changed profoundly over the past two decades largely due to the impact of digital technologies While the rise of smartphones and online commerce threatened to displace bricks and mortar stores physical shopping has survived and in some cases thrived Today the most successful brands design experiences that engage customers both within the physical store and in the digital realm In this book D J Huppertz analyses how corporations design these experiences how we interact with them and how they align with broader social cultural and economic changes Eight case studies reveal how some of the largest global retail chains including Apple Amazon Nike Zara IKEA and LEGO and smaller chains such as Aesop and Gentle Monster utilize design to create engaging experiences Unlike in the past such corporations consider design in a continuum that extends from architecture and interiors to product and service design and from website and digital interactions to social media At the intersection of design and cultural studies this book provides a critical survey and understanding of design and retail experience in the 21st century

This Is Your Brain on Sports L. Jon Wertheim, Sam Sommers, 2017-02-07 This is Your Brain on Sports is the book for sports fans searching for a deeper understanding of the games they watch and the people who play them Sports Illustrated executive editor and bestselling author L Jon Wertheim teams up with Tufts psychologist Sam Sommers to take readers on a wild ride into the inner world of sports Through the prism of behavioral economics neuroscience and psychology they reveal the hidden influences and surprising cues that inspire and derail us on the field and in the stands and by extension in corporate board rooms office settings and our daily lives In this irresistible narrative romp

Wertheim and Sommers usher us from professional football to the NBA to Grand Slam tennis from the psychology of athletes self handicapping their performance in the boxing ring or the World Series to an explanation of why even the glimpse of a finish line can lift us beyond ordinary physical limits They explore why Tom Brady and other starting NFL quarterbacks all seem to look like fashion models why fans of teams like the Cubs Mets and any franchise from Cleveland love rooting for a loser why the best players make the worst coaches why hockey goons and fans would rather fight at home than on the road and why the arena t shirt cannon has something to teach us about human nature In short this book is an entertaining and thought provoking journey into how psychology and behavioral science collide with the universe of wins and losses coaching changes underdogs and rivalry games Boston Globe Best Books of 2016 Sports Rise of the Self-Replicators Tim Taylor, Alan Dorin, 2020-07-30 Is it possible to design robots and other machines that can reproduce and evolve And if so what are the implications for the machines for ourselves for our environment and for the future of life on Earth and elsewhere In this book the authors provide a chronological survey and comprehensive archive of the early history of thought about machine self reproduction and evolution They discuss contributions from philosophy science fiction science and engineering and uncover many examples that have never been discussed in the Artificial Intelligence and Artificial Life literature before now In the final chapter they provide a synthesis of the concepts discussed offer their views on the field s future directions and call for a broad community discussion about the significant implications of intelligent evolving machines The book will be of interest to general readers and a valuable resource for researchers practitioners and historians engaged with ideas in artificial intelligence artificial life robotics and evolutionary computing Handbook of Research on Human-Computer Interfaces and New Modes of Interactivity Blashki, Katherine, Isaías, Pedro, 2019-05-31 Due to its versatility and accessibility individuals all around the world routinely use various forms of technology to interact with one another Over the years the design and development of technologies and interfaces have increasingly aimed to improve the human computer interactive experience in unimaginable ways The Handbook of Research on Human Computer Interfaces and New Modes of Interactivity is a collection of innovative research on the methods and applications of interactive technologies in the modern age Highlighting topics including digital environments sensory applications and transmedia applications this book is ideally designed for academicians researchers HCI developers programmers IT consultants and media specialists seeking current research on the design application and advancement of different media technologies and interfaces that can support interaction across a wide range of users Design, Mediation, and the Posthuman Dennis M. Weiss, Amy D. Proppen, Colbey Emmerson Reid, 2014-08-14 Though the progress of technology continually pushes life toward virtual existence the last decade has witnessed a renewed focus on materiality Design Mediation and the Posthuman bears witness to the attention paid by literary theorists digital humanists rhetoricians philosophers and designers to the crafted environment the manner in which artifacts mediate human relations and the constitution of a world in which the boundary between humans and things has seemingly imploded The chapters reflect on questions about the extent to which we ought to view humans and nonhuman artifacts as having equal capacity for agency and life and the ways in which technological mediation challenges the central tenets of humanism and anthropocentrism Contemporary theories of human object relations presage the arrival of the posthuman which is no longer a futuristic or science fictional concept but rather one descriptive of the present and indeed the past Discussions of the posthuman already have a long history in fields like literary theory rhetoric and philosophy and as advances in design and technology result in increasingly engaging artifacts that mediate more and more aspects of everyday life it becomes necessary to engage in a systematic interdisciplinary critical examination of the intersection of the domains of design technological mediation and the posthuman Thus this collection brings diverse disciplines together to foster a dialogue on significant technological issues pertinent to philosophy rhetoric aesthetics and science
