The New Oxford Handbook of Economic Geography Dariusz Wójcik, 2018-01-02 The first fifteen years of the 21st century have thrown into sharp relief the challenges of growth equity stability and sustainability facing the world economy In addition they have exposed the inadequacies of mainstream economics in providing answers to these challenges This volume gathers over 50 leading scholars from around the world to offer a forward looking perspective of economic geography to understanding the various building blocks relationships and trajectories in the world economy The perspective is at the same time grounded in theory and in the experiences of particular places Reviewing state of the art of economic geography setting agendas and with illustrations and empirical evidence from all over the world the book should be an essential reference for students researchers as well as strategists and policy makers Building on the success of the first edition this volume offers a radically revised updated and broader approach to economic geography With the backdrop of the global financial crisis finance is investigated in chapters on financial stability financial innovation global financial networks the global map of savings and investments and financialization Environmental challenges are addressed in chapters on resource economies vulnerability of regions to climate change carbon markets and energy transitions Distribution and consumption feature alongside more established topics on the firm innovation and work The handbook also captures the theoretical and conceptual innovations of the last fifteen years including evolutionary economic geography and the global production networks approach Addressing the dangers of inequality instability and environmental crisis head on the volume concludes with strategies for growth and new ways of envisioning the spatiality of economy for the future

Entrepreneurship and Local Economic Development Bruno Dallago, Ermanno Tortia, 2018-09-05 This book focuses on the nature and role of entrepreneurship in modern developed and emerging economies and societies its relation to governments and universities and its role in the often forgotten informal economy The aim is to position entrepreneurship in the post crisis context and explore how its relation to universities and governments contributes to explain the countries and territories growth performance and resilience or vulnerability to the crisis The accent is particularly on processes and patterns at local level and in small and medium sized enterprises in local economic systems and districts local systems of innovation and the types and configurations of innovation these give origin to With globalization entrepreneurship has become fundamental for the competitiveness of territories and countries for policy management and for development The local dimension is fundamental because of agglomeration economies and effects the advantages of proximity and the nature of knowledge and information Furthermore territories carry to the centre stage tacit knowledge localized social capital embeddedness and interpersonal relations as fundamental components of their endogenous socio economic development and competitiveness When local systems are connected in a horizontal network they contribute to the strength of national and international systems To play a constructive role from this perspective entrepreneurship must avoid local entrenchment and support the local economy to upgrade and be competitive To do this the entrepreneurs interaction and alliance with universities and governments is a must for those countries and localities wanting to emerge This requires that enterprises universities and governments create synergies and spill overs to their mutual advantage Unfolding Cluster Evolution Fiorenza Belussi,Jose Luis

Hervás-Oliver,2016-08-05 Various theories have been put forward as to why business and industry develops in clusters and despite good work being carried out on path dependence and dynamics this is still very much an emerging topic in the social sciences To date no overarching theoretical framework has been developed to show how clusters evolve Unfolding Cluster Evolution aims to address this gap by presenting theoretical and empirical research on the geography of innovation This contributed volume seeks to shed light on the understanding of clusters and its dynamic evolution The book provides evidence to suggest that traditional perspectives from evolutionary economic geography need to be wedded to management thinking in order to reach this point Bringing together thinking from a range of disciplines and countries across Europe this book explores a wide range of topics from the capability approach to network dynamics to multinational corporations to firm entry and exit and social capital This book will be of interest to policy makers and students of urban studies economic geography and planning and development Innovation Drivers and Regional Innovation Strategies M. Davide Parrilli,Rune

Dahl Fitjar,Andrés Rodríguez-Pose,2016-02-05 In the global economy regional development and innovation are increasingly an imperative to increase the competitive edge of EU economies While European regions are different in many ways the innovation capacity of regions clusters and firms is what makes them capable of building up new and diversified pathways for sustainable growth For this reason Innovation Drivers and Regional Innovation Strategies looks to analyze different knowledge drivers e g entrepreneurial or policy orientation scientific and practice based knowledge modes institutional innovation support that influence the innovative and competitive capacity of regions clusters and firms in Europe The aim of this volume is to develop an in depth understanding of these drivers and their implications for the way in which regional and cluster growth may be upgraded Innovation Drivers and Regional Innovation Strategies examines the construction of new innovation pathways for regions and clusters in different geographical contexts The main themes are cluster evolution regional innovation systems and business innovation modes and capabilities The objectives are centred on exploring the logic and mechanisms that can be activated as a means to promote innovation and competitiveness within regions and within these across and within firms Aimed at researchers and academics in the field this is a thoughtful and innovative new volume that helps define the academic debate Industrial Clusters, Institutions and Poverty in Nigeria Oyebanke

Oyeyinka,2017-01-31 This book provides a systematic examination of the relationship between industrial clusters and poverty which is analyzed using a multidimensional framework It examines the often neglected concept of social protection as a means of mitigating the risks and vulnerabilities faced by workers and citizens in poor countries By analyzing the case of the Otigba Information and Communications Technology cluster in Lagos Nigeria the author shows under which conditions firms in productive clusters can pass on benefits to workers in ways that improve their living standards in the wider socio economic and spatial context of the region The results presented provide substantial evidence of opportunities for economic development helping planners to explore different avenues for integrating firm driven social protection into social policy

The Great Music City Andrea Baker, 2019-03-01 In the 1960s as gentrification took hold of New York City Jane Jacobs predicted that the city would become the true player in the global system Indeed in the 21st century more meaningful comparisons can be made between cities than between nations and states Based on case studies of Melbourne Austin and Berlin this book is the first in depth study to combine academic and industry analysis of the music cities phenomenon Using four distinctly defined algorithms as benchmarks it interrogates Richard Florida's creative cities thesis and applies a much needed synergy of urban sociology and musicology to the concept mediated by a journalism lens Building on seminal work by Robert Park Lewis Mumford and Jane Jacobs it argues that journalists are the cultural branders and street theorists whose ethnographic approach offers critical insights into the urban sociability of music activity
