by David

Benji Adams and Carlos Johnson worked as volunteers in Ghana, West Africa. Benji and Carlos wanted to help the West African women provide better lives for themselves and for their children. In 2005, these two men performed an organization called Global Mission. The purpose of Global Mission is to help the women of Ghana sell and export handcrafted products. In other words, Global Mission helps women open businesses to help provide them with a better life and hope. The Ghana women are also given assistance in selling their goods to people and places around the world. The men from Ghana are part of the Global Mission organization. They are providing their knowledge to help women.

All of the products made and sold by the Ghana women are handcrafted and handmade. Benji and Carlos help the women in two ways. Although the products are created by design and not made by machine or design.
