

THE FUTURE OF Ibanez ACOUSTIC GUITARS: GET ONBOARD

Today's acoustic guitar has to handle a lot of responsibilities. Obviously, it has to have a great acoustic sound: the chords must sparkle at the top and feel warm and full at the bottom. It has to feel good to just strum the instrument alone in a room or with friends around a campfire.

But that's not all. Now, an acoustic instrument must also have a rich and realistic "plugged-in" sound that will work flawlessly at open mics or full-band club gigs. In addition, acoustic guitars are now expected to have a full range of onboard effects, tuners and EQs. Gone are the days when all an acoustic guitar had to do was sit around and look pretty.

For 2008, Ibanez has responded to these needs, and then some. We're pleased and excited to introduce the revolutionary Montage, a dual acoustic/electric guitar that offers five sound options, from pure acoustic to overdriven electric and everything in between. The Montage features onboard reverb, chorus, tuner and much more.

Also new for 2008 is the Exotic Wood Nylon series, combining the beauty of our already-lauded Exotic Wood series with comfortable nylon strings and B-Band® electronics. Our new Artwood Studio series features new Fast Action Set-up Technology (F.A.S.T.™) for easier neck adjustments and Flying Top construction for greater resonance and projection. In addition, the G-Elite Classical series introduces a new level of quality and affordability in nylon string classical guitars.

Ibanez isn't just keeping up with the times. We're inventing the busy future of acoustic guitar.
