Service management

is a set of specialized organizational capabilities for enabling value for customers in the form of services.

What are service relationships?

Service relationship management are the joint activities performed by a service provider and a service consumer to ensure continual value co-creation based on agreed and available service offerings.

- A service offering is a formal description of one or more services, designed to address the needs of a target consumer group. A service offering may include goods, access to resources, and service actions.
- A service provision is the activities performed by an organization to provide services, including management of the provider's resources, configured to deliver the service; ensuring access to these resources for users; fulfillment of the agreed service actions; service level management; and continual improvement. It may also include the supply of goods.
- Service consumption is the activities performed by an organization to consume services. It includes the management of the consumer's resources needed to use the service, service actions performed by users, and the receiving (acquiring) of goods (if required).

Goods

have the ownership transferred to a consumer

Access

Does not have the ownership transferred to a consumer

Actions

are performed by the provider to address a consumer need

What is a service?

A service is a means of enabling value co-creation by facilitating outcomes that customers want to achieve without the customer having to manage specific costs and risks.

- Value is the perceived benefits, usefulness, and importance of something.
- An outcome is a result for a stakeholder enabled by one or more outputs.
- An output is a tangible or intangible deliverable of an activity.
- Cost is the amount of money spent on a specific activity or resource.
- Risk is a possible event that could cause harm or loss, or make it more difficult to achieve objectives (uncertainty of outcome).

Utility/Warranty

Utility is the functionality offered by a product or service to meet a particular need.

- What a service does (fit for purpose)

Warranty is the assurance that a product or service will meet agreed requirements.

- How a service performs (fit for use)
