Frei's writing style is straightforward and honest with a swiftness that keeps the reader turning pages and wiping tears. Beyond the inspiring storytelling, the book also offers practical advice to potential therapy dog handlers about how to get a dog certified with a proper registry, the responsibilities that accompany therapy work, and the importance of community involvement. Frei's association with Westminster yielded the formation of a nonprofit organization called Angel on a Leash, the book's namesake, which Frei was the key founder. Although the organization is now a separate entity from its famous parent, Best in Show winners of Westminster have frequently retired from the show ring into the realm of therapy work, receiving Frei's encouragement and guidance. Among the many exquisite moments captured in the book's photography section are portraits of Rufus the Colored Bull Terrier, James the English Spring Spaniel, and Uno the Beagle, all supreme victors of the famous show, spending time with children on therapy visits.
