Everyone Teaches and Everyone Learns Lourdes Z. Mitchel, 2013-09-19 The literature on preparing and sustaining quality teachers has suggested that to be successful teacher preparation and development require a mutual collaboration and a synergy of effort among partners most typically a school district and a university teacher preparation program One response has been to draw universities and school districts together in true partnership through Professional Development Schools PDSs Together the partners are responsible for creating environments in schools and in university classrooms that can transform into clinical sites dedicated to best practices and professional growth for all This book is designed to offer practical applications on how partners can work together to implement the mission and goals of the PDS by providing ways that PDS partners can engage in a much deeper and more profound experience that results in a synergistic relationship Joint involvement in application of practice takes each partner to a level far greater than traditional teacher education and professional development practices while creating a cooperative community of practice centered on teacher and student learning

The End of Ignorance John Mighton, 2011-06-01 A revolutionary call for a new understanding of how people learn The End of Ignorance conceives of a world in which no child is left behind a world based on the assumption that each child has the potential to be successful in every subject John Mighton argues that by recognizing the barriers that we have experienced in our own educational development by identifying the moment that we became disenchanted with a certain subject and forever closed ourselves off to it we will be able to eliminate these same barriers from standing in the way of our children A passionate examination of our present education system The End of Ignorance shows how we all can work together to reinvent the way that we are taught
