Property Fit Luke Harris,2022-01-01 Proven strategies and mentor tips to help new and experienced investors achieve financial freedom through property. As with any fitness program, there's a process to getting your property investments into shape and achieving peak performance. You don't run a marathon if you've only just started jogging, and you don't begin weight training by lifting 30kg dumbbells. There's a process to follow. There are also multiple ways to keep fit through a variety of sports or exercise programs. Investing in property is no different. You need to start by learning how other people invest, including the mistakes they make. You have to find a team of experts; your trainers do some self-assessment, your fitness test, and then start to look at how you will achieve your property investing goals. Property Fit assists you with all of this. Experienced property investor and entrepreneur Luke Harris takes you through the groundwork you need to cover before you start investing. Then he explores all the ways to invest in property to help you find a strategy that will lead to the ultimate goal of financial freedom. This easy-to-read, practical book includes mentor tips and mindset insights, as well as proven strategies that seasoned investors or those just starting out in property will find invaluable.
