Engineering Design and Mathematical Modelling Concepts and Applications consists of chapters that span the Engineering design and mathematical modelling domains Engineering design and mathematical modelling are key tools techniques in the Science Technology and Innovation spheres Whilst engineering design is concerned with the creation of functional innovative products and processes mathematical modelling seeks to utilize mathematical principles and concepts to describe and control real world phenomena Both of these can be useful tools for spurring and hastening progress in developing countries They are also areas where Africa needs to skill up in order to build a technological base The chapters in this book cover the relevant research trends in the fields of both engineering design and mathematical modelling This book was originally published as a special issue of the African Journal of Science Technology Innovation and Development

Insights in Life-course Epidemiology and Social Inequalities: 2021 Cyrille Delpierre,Hilde Langseth,2022-09-05

Impact of Immigration and Xenophobia on Development in Africa Mafukata, Mavhungu Abel,2020-12-25 Human movement has an influence on the socio economic dynamics of people regions and countries The schisms between host and immigrants impact how host countries utilize immigrant skills and expertise to benefit their economies However immigrants are impacted by negative diplomatic relations between countries that limit the free movement of people and the welfare of immigrants In association this brings about social challenges such as Afrophobia racism xenophobia hatred and violence within these countries While these challenges are deeply rooted across the world Africa has its own unique challenges Still struggling with massive underdevelopment Africa needs to remove all the negative factors that could impede its quest of achieving development imperatives Impact of Immigration and Xenophobia on Development in Africa analyzes the genesis and evolution of immigration in Africa and how this has resulted in social challenges such as xenophobia within the continent The book focuses on demonstrating how immigrant skills and expertise can be positively utilized to assist African development and asserts the existence of xenophobia in respective countries does not assist Africa s quest of resolving its own challenges The chapters within this book therefore explore how this subsequent output of xenophobia has impacted African development and focuses on the revival of Pan Africanism as a uniting instrument and ideology for Africans This book is a valuable reference tool for activists retired and practicing politicians governments policymakers practitioners stakeholders researchers students and academicians

Rebels and Rage Adam Habib,2019-03-01 Adam Habib the most prominent and outspoken university official through the recent student protests takes a characteristically frank view of the past three years on South Africa s campuses in this new book Habib charts the progress of the student protests that erupted on Wits University campus in late 2015 and raged for the better part of three years drawing on his own intimate involvement and negotiation with the students and also records university management and government responses to the events He critically examines the student movement and individual student leaders who emerged under the banners feesmustfall and Rhodesmustfall and debates how to achieve truly progressive social change in South Africa on our campuses and off This book is both an attempt at a historical account and a thoughtful reflection on the issues the protests kicked up from the perspective not only of a high ranking member of university management but also Habib as political scientist with a background as an activist during the struggle against apartheid Habib moves between reflecting on the events of the last three years on university campuses and reimagining the future of South African higher education Adam Habib the most prominent and outspoken university official through the recent student protests takes a characteristically frank view of the past three years on South Africa s campuses in this new book Habib charts the progress of the student protests that erupted on Wits University campus in late 2015 and raged for the better part of three years drawing on his own intimate involvement and negotiation with the students and also records university management and government responses to the events He critically examines the student movement and individual student leaders who emerged under the banners feesmustfall and Rhodesmustfall and debates how to achieve truly progressive social change in South Africa on our campuses and off This book is both an attempt at a historical account and a thoughtful reflection on the issues the protests kicked up from the perspective not only of a high ranking member of university management but also Habib as political scientist with a background as an activist during the struggle against apartheid Habib moves between reflecting on the events of the last three years on university campuses and reimagining the future of South African higher education

Inyathi Ibuzwa
Kwabaphambili Babalwa Magoqwana,Siphokazi Magadla,Athambile Masola,2024-10-21 This book seeks to create a systematic eclectic historical picture of the present and past women intellectuals activists artists and cultural custodians Using the concept of ukufukama incubate we connect intergenerational knowledge transfer of our elders to the current struggles faced by the younger generation of women We bring together different authors who engage the biographical and intellectual contributions of different African women and their imagination of the democratic South Africa Writing about the various feminist intellectual traditions between the 19th and 21st centuries this book systematically pulls together oral and creative texts to recover the memories of Nosuthu Jotelo Sarah Baartman Nontsizi Mqgqwetho Phyllis Ntantala Brigalia Bam Umntwana uMagogo Miriam Makeba Sibongile Khumalo Lebo Mathosa Thandiswa Mazwai Celeste Ntuli Nkosazana Dlamini Zuma Neo Mathabe among the lives and works covered here This range of voices shows that intellectual work is varied and has the ability to sit alongside each other It importantly shows that scholarship emerges through community and conversation which is to say feminist histories are created and recreated through conversations that care about women s voices stories and being in the world Ultimately we think of the women featured in this book as forming a lineage a tradition of black women s survival wisdom which facilitated change and enduring radical transformation that demands theorisation and celebration

Imaging and Assessing Mobile Technology for Development Richard Musabe, John Sören Pettersson, 2024-04-08 Imaging and assessing mobile technology for development M4D means understanding the use of appropriate technologies and services and how they directly or indirectly address socio economic challenges This book adopts various perspectives to identify the obstacles to affordable digital technologies in order to enable enhance and effect development The book plays on the tension between success reports and optimistic projections on one hand and empirical evidence of technological belly splash on the other hand The areas covered include infusion of service education in computing education the Rwandan establishment of African Centres of Excellence to promote the development of appropriate technology the metaverse s realisation in a mobile network enabled metaversity and difficulties detected when evaluating digitisation of distance learning students security awareness dissemination of agricultural information and mobile payment The decolonisation of community based media and attempts to step outside the mobile network and Internet are also covered
