Learning to Teach Geography in the Secondary School Mary Biddulph, David Lambert, David Balderstone, 2015-05-20

Learning to Teach Geography in the Secondary School has become the widely recommended textbook for student and new teachers of geography. It helps you acquire a deeper understanding of the role, purpose and potential of geography within the secondary curriculum and provides the practical skills needed to design, teach and evaluate stimulating and challenging lessons. It is grounded in the notion of social justice and the idea that all students are entitled to a high quality geography education. The very practical dimension provides you with support structures through which you can begin to develop your own philosophy of teaching and debate key questions about the nature and purpose of the subject in school. Fully revised and updated in light of extensive changes to the curriculum as well as to initial teacher education, the new edition considers the current debates around what we mean by geographical knowledge and what is involved in studying at Masters level. Key chapters explore the fundamentals of teaching and learning geography, Why we teach and what to teach, Understanding and planning the curriculum, Effective pedagogy, Assessment, Developing and using resources, Fieldwork and outdoor learning, Values in school geography, Professional development. Intended as a core textbook and written with university and school based initial teacher education in mind, Learning to Teach Geography in the Secondary school is essential reading for all those who aspire to become effective, reflective teachers. Praise for previous editions of Learning to Teach Geography in the Secondary School: This is a practical and visionary book as well as being superbly optimistic. It has as much to offer the experienced teacher as the novice and could be used to reinvigorate geography departments everywhere. Practical activities and ideas are set within a carefully worked out, authoritative conceptual framework. The Times Educational Supplement. This is a modern, powerful, relevant and comprehensive work, a standard reference for many beginning teachers on geography initial teacher training courses. Educational Review.

Creole Composition Vivette Milson-Whyte, Raymond Oenbring, 2019-08-13. Creole Composition is a collection featuring essays by scholars and teachers/researchers working with students in/from the Anglophone Caribbean. Arising from a need to define what writing instruction in the Caribbean means, Creole Composition expands the existing body of research/literature about the teaching of writing at the postsecondary level in the Caribbean region. To this end, it speaks to critical disciplinary conversations of rhetoric and composition and academic literacies while addressing specific issues with teaching academic writing to Anglophone Caribbean students. It features chapters addressing language approaches to teaching/assessing writing, administration and research in postsecondary education as well as professionalization of writing instructors in the region. Some chapters reflect traditional Caribbean attitudes to postsecondary writing instruction; other chapters seek to reform these traditional practices. Some chapters/interventions emerge from discussions in writing studies while other chapters reflect their authors' primary training in other fields such as applied linguistics, education and literary studies. Additionally, the chapters use a variety of styles and methods.

ranging from highly personal reflective essays to theoretical pieces and empirical studies following IMRaD format Creole Composition the first of its kind in the region provides much needed knowledge to the community of teacher researchers in the Anglophone Caribbean and elsewhere in the fields of rhetoric and composition writing studies and academic literacies In suggesting frameworks around which to build and further institutionalize and professionalize writing studies in the region the collection advances the broader field of writing studies beyond national boundaries Contributors include Tyrone Ali Annife Campbell Tresecka Campbell Dawes Valerie Combie Jacob Dyer Spiegel Brianne Jaquette Carmeneta Jones Clover Jones McKenzie Beverley Josephs Christine E Kozikowski Vivette Milson Whyte Kendra L Mitchell Raymond Oenbring Heather M Robinson Daidrah Smith and Michelle Stewart McKoy
