These meditations written over a 14 to 25 period began with a goal of 365 days but became Walking with God 52 Weeks of the Year and 300 days to allow for a weekend day and holidays. Prayers that are appropriate for individuals, workplace concerns, world events, child raising, family living, and children as they reach young adulthood are here. Each single day and meditation or essay is meant to stand alone. Broken-But Not Destroyed S. Miriam Clifford, 2009-08. The Author had entered into this life by rape of a woman without being asked to be born without having made any effort to get here. A newborn does not know she is alive. There is no realization factor for the infant as if it was unconscious. An irresistible instinct impels her as she becomes a woman. Her life takes a deep plunge felt by the indifferent blows of tragedy such as dying at a young age, starvation, physical and emotional abuse, financial ruin, automobile accident, divorce, and homelessness, and the list goes through many situations. Each predicament centers on the story of someone who came into her life. The fabric of our lives is the sum total of all our experiences. Thinking back to what shaped the Author provides a revealing perspective. She did not write these thoughts from a palace. Miriam wrote them while she was going through the roughest times in her life in journals, on napkins, and on cardboard on the streets of emptiness. An Atheist meets her Maker. Jesus again this time in the dark alley in New York City. The journey of forgiveness, redemption, healing, and restoration provides powerful insight why each person is obliged in spite of self to investigate on their journey that the human thought is related to the principle reason that nothing is without cause. Here one discovers that their life is mapped out for a purpose, an assignment leading into destiny. Her life changes 360 degrees as she starts reflecting on her life which propels her into a voyage of the true self discovery, finding, and then knowing the source of life is God. Life is not about finding yourself; it is about discovering who God created you to be. Mornings with Nana Marietta Terry, 2024-05-07. Start your day with love and prayer from grandma.
