

Katie's Autobiography

My name is Mohammed and I am 11 years old. I was born in Dubai. When I was a baby I drank from a bottle. My mom took good care of me. When I started to grow, my little sister was born. Our bedroom was filled with toys. Then, I started Kindergarten. I learned a lot. My teacher was very nice and taught me how to read. Next, I went to first grade. First grade is a little harder, but I am still learning a lot. My best friend is Moayed. He's really funny. We like to play tag at recess. I like my teacher this year because he reads us stories. My favorite subject is reading. I read lots of books. My favorite one is called "Diary of a Spider." My favorite color is purple and my favorite thing to do is sing. I live with my mom, my dad, and my sister. We go on walks together around the neighborhood. After school I always eat a snack. When I grow up, I want to be a doctor just like my dad.

George Levine, 2010-11-15 Dying to Know is the work of a distinguished scholar at the peak of his powers who is intimately familiar with his materials and whose knowledge of Victorian fiction and scientific thought is remarkable This elegant and evocative look at the move toward objectivity first pioneered by Descartes sheds new light on some old and still perplexing problems in modern science Bernard Lightman York University Canada In Dying to Know eminent critic George Levine makes a landmark contribution to the history and theory of scientific knowledge This long awaited book explores the paradoxes of our modern ideal of objectivity in particular its emphasis on the impersonality and disinterestedness of truth How asks Levine did this idea of selfless knowledge come to be established and moralized in the nineteenth century Levine shows that for nineteenth century scientists novelists poets and philosophers access to the truth depended on conditions of such profound self abnegation that pursuit of it might be taken as tantamount to the pursuit of death The Victorians he argues were dying to know in the sense that they could imagine achieving pure knowledge only in a condition where the body ceases to make its claims to achieve enlightenment virtue and salvation one must die Dying to Know is ultimately a study of this moral ideal of epistemology But it is also something much more a spirited defense of the difficult pursuit of objectivity the ethical significance of sacrifice and the importance of finding a shareable form of knowledge Jakobsonian Poetics and Slavic Narrative Krystyna Pomorska, 1992 Krystyna Pomorska 1928 1986 a noted specialist of Slavic literature and literary theory is best known for her pioneering work in applying Roman Jakobson's theories of poetics to prose narratives. This collection draws together and makes accessible her writings over two decades among them articles appearing in English for the first time. She treats a wide range of Slavic literary works including those by Pushkin, Tolstoi, Pasternak, Chekhov and Solzhenitsyn as well as examples from Polish and Ukrainian literature and folklore. Forming an intellectual and methodological whole, these essays reveal Pomorska's commitment to the principles of Jakobsonian poetics, her consistent application of these basic theoretical concepts to the analysis of literary works and her interest in the foundations and history of literary criticism. Pomorska explores problems in both poetics of prose as well as poetry and literary theory, especially the relationship between biography and myth. In addition, several studies are devoted to the roots of the variegated intellectual legacy of Roman Jakobson and by extension of Russian-Czech structuralism in its various stages of development. In Krystyna Pomorska, structuralism found a most able practitioner and Jakobson's oeuvre an authoritative exponent and interpreter. Her volume, a guide book to a major strain in modern criticism, will be of great interest to a broad audience of literary theorists and students of Slavic literatures and literature in general.
