

How I Lost One Of My Best Friends – My Dog Sammy

I never understood the meaning of death. All I knew was that one day it'll happen to everyone and everything, most times unexpectedly. So when my dog Sammy died completely out of the blue one day, I felt lost. I had become so attached and dependent on him, I didn't know what I would do without him. Losing Sammy taught me not to take the things I care about for granted.

I'll never forget the day I got Sammy. I was ten years old and I had never had my own pet before, not even a fish. I always wanted a dog. I did everything I could to show my parents I was responsible enough to take care of one. I did all my chores; I tried my hardest in school; I even looked up different types of dogs and how to take care of them. So when my parents finally told me we were going to go get me a puppy I felt like I was going to burst with excitement. The entire drive to the animal shelter I was bouncing up and down in my seat. I couldn't believe this was actually happening. When we got to the animal shelter I bolted through the doors and my eyes immediately went to Sammy. I knew from the very first moment I saw him that he was meant for me.

Sammy and I did everything together. We would spend our days playing. We would go to the back yard and I would throw the ball with as much strength as I could muster. He would chase after it as fast as he could, his ear flopping in the wind. When we couldn't play outside, we would play hide and go seek inside. I would go around the entire house trying to find the best hiding place I could while he waited in my room.
