The Austin Clarke Library Austin Clarke, 2015-08-22 Gathered together are three extraordinary books by renowned storyteller and memoirist Austin Clarke. Membering Clarke's breathtaking memoir spans over fifty years of his life as a writer chronicling his coming to Canada in the fifties, formative experiences with Malcolm X, Chinua Achebe, and LeRoi Jones, and bursting with cultural insights and poignant memories from a narrative master. In The Polished Hoe, winner of the Giller Prize and the 2003 Commonwealth Writers Prize, when an elderly Bimshire village woman calls the police to confess to a murder, the result is a shattering all-night vigil that brings together elements of the African diaspora in one epic sweep. Set on the post-colonial West Indian island of Bimshire in 1952, The Polished Hoe unravels over the course of 24 hours but spans the lifetime of one woman and the collective experience of a society informed by slavery. Choosing His Coffin is a selection of Clarke's finest work from more than forty years of storytelling, drawing on his Caribbean roots and his years in Canada. These stories range in theme from growing up in West Indian society and what it means to be black in both the United States and Canada to surviving as an immigrant in a predominantly Anglo-Saxon culture.

Tobacco Road Frances Robert Lato, 2010-05 This is a self-help book on how to teach yourself to control and in fact stop your use of tobacco in any form once and for all. The author is a 59-year-old male who smoked 1 pack of cigarettes each day for 22 years. That's 7300 cigarettes per year or in his case it was 160 600 cigarettes for 22 years. That's enough to make anyone sick and certainly has. From the age of 16 to 38 he always knew that one day he would eventually want to stop smoking and find a way to regain control of his life with respects to his one pack a day habit. While driving a truck in the middle of his normal work day back in the summer of 1986 he experienced some sudden fluttering in his chest and dizziness. Because he felt instant fear and out of control over this unexplained feeling he quickly made an appointment to see a cardiologist for a complete physical. Upon completion of his physical with his Doctor he was told he was very fit and in fine shape for a young man at 36 but that by the time he was 45 he could experience some real problems as he already had a wheeze. Even though there is no history of heart problems in his family, being of Italian decent and longevity was well established with parents who lived to almost 90 and grand parents who made it to 95 and 100 his concerns grew. He felt threatened by the thought of heart trouble from smoking because he once witnessed two men die right before his eyes from heart attack and both men happen to be heavy smokers. His fears began to take their toll rapidly with the doctor's simply advice to QUIT SMOKING NOW.
