My Husband S Other Women 3:

My Husband's Other Women 3 Regina Swanson,2015-01-13 Ephesians 5 25 says husbands love your wives just as Christ loved the church Rayvon Laws either never read the bible or has no clue of the definition of love Rayvon has proved that once a cheater always a cheater As Part 3 unfolds the women in Rayvon s life realize that every dog has his day But which of his other women finally brings him to his knees Janice has put her heart and soul into making her marriage last After realizing that her efforts will never be enough to hold onto someone who was never hers to begin with will she be able to find peace and forgiveness in a man she once despised Stacy has been used to letting her sister handle anyone that wronged her But when the tables are turned she must find the courage needed to step into the unfamiliar role of protector At the end of it all who will be left scrambling to have the scales of justice tipped in their favor My Husband's Other Women Regina Swanson,2014-09-27 Rayvon Laws swore he d never get married There were too many beautiful women in the world to choose from and he was too greedy to settle down with just one The longest he d been in a serious relationship was two weeks But that all changed when he met Stacy who finally snatched up his heart and all his other drama What he didn t know was that Stacy the self proclaimed good girl could get down and dirty when pushed to her limit Dealing with her husband s other women causes her to pull a few tricks from her own bag and sends everyone into a tailspin of confusion In a story of sex lies and cheating who does it best Rayvon or Stacy Embodying Honor Amal Fadlalla,2007-11-20 In the Red Sea Hills of eastern Sudan where poverty famines and conflict loom large women struggle to gain the status of responsible motherhood through bearing and raising healthy children especially sons But biological fate can be capricious in impoverished settings Amidst struggle for survival and expectations of heroic mothering women face realities that challenge their ability to fulfill their prescribed roles Even as the effects of modernity and development global inequities and exclusionary government policies challenge traditional ways of life in eastern Sudan and throughout many parts of Africa reproductive traumas infertility miscarriage children s illnesses and mortality disrupt women s reproductive health and impede their efforts to achieve the status that comes with fertility and motherhood In Embodying Honor Amal Hassan Fadlalla finds that the female body is the locus of anxieties about foreign dangers and diseases threats perceived to be disruptive to morality feminine identities and social well being As a northern Sudanese viewed as an outsider in this region of her native country Fadlalla presents an intimate portrait and thorough analysis that offers an intriguing commentary on the very notion of what constitutes the foreign Fadlalla shows how Muslim Hadendowa women manage health and reproductive suffering in their quest to become responsible mothers and valued members of their communities Her historically grounded ethnography delves into women s reproductive histories personal narratives and ritual logics to reveal the ways in which women challenge cultural understandings of gender honor and reproduction Appendices to the Minutes of Evidence and Report Great Britain. Reproductive Labour Ayşe Arslan, 2023-07-27 This book looks at the dynamic relationship between women's productive and reproductive work in a Global South country from a Global South perspective. Applying a feminist political economy and historical materialist approach and building on an ethnographic extended case study, it analyses the relationships between class and gender across both the productive and reproductive realms at the macro and micro levels in the case of women garment workers in Turkey. Overall, it shows that the material and social conditions of women's productive and reproductive work co-constitute each other. It suggests that productive and social reproductive labour should be examined as an integrated process and an interrelated social relation in constant dialogue with other social relations. This book is of interest to researchers and students in the disciplines of gender studies, labour studies, feminist economics, sociology, and development studies. Given that most studies on social reproduction have largely focused on the Global North, this book is of particular interest to those in search of a more comprehensive and holistic understanding. It is also of great relevance to policymakers concerned with gender and labour issues as well as labour and feminist activists.

The Profound Mystery Mark Kirchberg, Phyllis Kirchberg, 2008-08 In The Profound Mystery, Mark and Phyllis Kirchberg, husband and wife for twenty years, shine new light on the institution of marriage. Through the Spirit of God, utilizing visions, dreams, revelations, repentance, and personal conversations with the Lord Jesus Christ, the authors are able to cleanse their lives of sin and genuinely love one another. Through an exploration of God, the condition of the human heart, and the Bible, The Profound Mystery provides readers with guidance for marriage and all relationships.

ATVET4Women in Benin targets women working in value chains for four target commodities soy rice chicken and compost to support capacity building in their respective nodes production processing and marketing The contributions of this study are multifold First it assesses program experiences and impacts Second it examines the gender dimensions of production processing and marketing activities in four specific value chains Third this research is a component of a broader study to adapt and validate the project level Women's Empowerment in Agriculture Index for market inclusion pro WEAI MI on key agricultural value chains in Benin and Malawi for ATVET4Women This study employed multiple qualitative methods to assess beneficiaries program experiences and impacts Fifteen key informant interviews were conducted with various actors along the value chain and agro processing center managers involved in ATVET4Women Thirty eight semi structured interviews were conducted with women beneficiaries of ATVET4Women husbands of beneficiaries women that were involved in the value chain but did not participate in ATVET4Women and ATVET4Women trainers Structured observations were conducted of five ATVET4Women training centers In general women beneficiaries and their husbands shared positive reviews of ATVET4Women in that the program increased women's confidence in their abilities and taught women best practices for producing and selling higher quality products generating higher incomes for women Women noted several challenges and barriers to participate in ATVET4Women including limited availability to travel to or partake in the trainings due to competing demands and priorities on their time requiring their husbands permission to attend and limited means to support travel to and from trainings Related to findings around empowerment results suggest that an empowered woman is closely tied to her ability to generate income regardless of her decision making autonomy whereas an empowered man is one who generates higher incomes and is autonomous in his decision making A woman is expected to be submissive to her husband and defer to his decision making which holds implications for her ability to participate in activities outside of the household including but not limited to ATVET4Women and similar programs This study concludes with specific recommendations for ATVET4Women and similar programs to consider in future iterations of further programming to increase women's empowerment in Benin

Women's Empowerment in Indonesia Sri Wiyanti Eddyono, 2018-10-26 The idea that development projects in poor countries are most effective when they harness the agency of women is a well known theme Most studies of women's agency in such projects however focus on the role of non governmental organizations in facilitating women's agency This book on the other hand based on extensive original research explores how women can effectively mobilize themselves on their own initiative The book considers poor people in informal settlements in Jakarta where government schemes for modernizing the city have often led to forced evictions The book examines different groups of women analyzes how they have challenged oppressive authority their husbands community leaders and local governments and provides detailed insights into women's attitudes and what has motivated them. Overall, the book provides a rich picture of women's empowerment and disempowerment.
