From Job to the Shoah Reuven

Travis, 2014-03-18 In Job's final concession to God he uses a phrase generally translated from the Hebrew as Wherefore I abhor myself and repent in dust and ashes afar va eifer A very small number of scholars see this translation as forced While most translations have Job referring to himself with the words afar va eifer this small group of scholars does not believe the Hebrew to be so clear They maintain that the phrase afar va eifer could just as easily be translated as referring to God In this translation of the text Job is calling God dust and ashes Can Job truly be referring to God not himself as dust and ashes How dare he And if he did what did this mean theologically If this linguistic analysis is correct how are we to understand not only the ending of the book but also the entire story of Job These are the questions From Job to the Shoah strives to answer The conclusions it reaches have profound theological implications especially in our modern era when the dust and ashes of the six million Jews murdered in the Holocaust still hang heavily above us Introduction to World Religions Wayne Rollen
