MARCH 2014

WEEK STARTING MARCH 10

Song 1 and Prayer

☐ Congregation Bible Study:

cf chap. 4 ¶1-9 (30 min.)

☐ Theocratic Ministry School:

Bible reading: Genesis 40-42 (10 min.)

No. 1: Genesis 41:1-16 (4 min. or less)

No. 2: How Do the Rest of the Dead Come to Life on Earth?—rs p. 338 ¶2—p. 339 ¶2 (5 min.)

No. 3: Abihu—Prominence Does Not Excuse Disobedience—if-1 p. 22 (5 min.)

☐ Service Meeting:

Song 88

15 min: Family Worship That Refreshes. Interview a family regarding their family worship. Of what does their program consist? How do they determine what to discuss? What tools available on jw.org have they used? How has their program helped them in the ministry? How do they prevent other activities from disrupting their schedule? How have they benefited from their program of family worship?

15 min: “Improving Our Skills in the Ministry—Responding to Potential Conversation Stoppers.” Discussion. Consider two or three potential conversation stoppers that publishers may encounter, and invite comments on how we might respond. Remind publishers that they will have an opportunity to relate experiences during the week of April 7.

Song 97 and Prayer

Improving Our Skills in the Ministry—Responding to Potential Conversation Stoppers

Why Important: Imagine that you know that a natural disaster is imminent. People will die unless they flee to safety. You go to a neighbor’s home to warn him, but he interrupts you, saying that he is busy. Surely, you would not quickly abandon your efforts to help him! Many in our territory turn us away, not realizing the life-saving value of our message. At the time of our visit, perhaps they are preoccupied. (Matt. 24:37-39) Or maybe they have been prejudiced by untrue rumors. (Matt. 11:18, 19) They might assume that we are no different from the religions that have produced bad fruitage. (2 Pet. 2:1, 2) If the householder initially is not interested, we should not be quick to give up.

How to Do It:

- Before preaching from house to house, take a few moments to think about potential conversation stoppers that you may encounter and consider how to respond.
- If the householder presents an objection, gently try to continue the conversation. Perhaps you can do that by commending him. For example, if he says that he has his own religion, you might reply, “I was hoping to find someone like you who has an interest in spiritual things.” Sometimes acknowledging the householder’s feelings or circumstances will enable you to continue giving a witness. For instance, if he says that he is busy, you might say: “I understand. But before I leave, I would like to give you this.” Another option is to ask a question if the householder says that he is not interested. You could say, “Do you mean that you are not interested in the Bible, or is it religion in general that does not interest you?”
- Use good judgment. Remember that Jehovah does not force people to listen. (Deut. 30:19) Everyone must carry his own load of spiritual responsibility. (Gal. 6:5) If the householder is adamant, it is best to take our leave. By demonstrating respect for his feelings, we may open the door for another publisher to give a witness in the future. —1 Pet. 3:15.

Try This During the Month:

- When you encounter a potential conversation stopper, after leaving the householder, discuss with your partner how you might have responded in a better way.

Open Data Exposed Bastiaan van Loenen, Glenn Vancauwenberghe, Joep Crompvoets, 2018-10-25 The main objectives of this book are to expose key aspects that have a relevance when dealing with open data viewed from different perspectives and to provide appealing examples of how open data is implemented worldwide The concept of open data as we know it today is the result of many different initiatives both of a legislative and non legislative nature and promoted by a wide range of actors Numerous regulatory antecedents to foster the concept of open data and embed it in national and international policy agendas have been undertaken on both sides of the Atlantic as well as at a supranational level The book highlights a number of the efforts made to promote open data in Europe Asia and the United States In addition to new insights practical guidance and multiple disciplinary perspectives on open data the book also addresses the transformation of current developments towards open data which may be referred to as the democratisation of data This book will support open data practitioners as well as open data scholars in their endeavours to promote open data implementation and research Bastiaan van Loenen is associate professor and director of the Knowledge Centre Open Data at the Faculty of Architecture and The Built Environment of Delft University of Technology in the Netherlands as is Glenn Vancauwenberghe who is a post doctoral researcher and Joep Crompvoets is a professor at the Public Governance Institute of the KU Leuven in Belgium

Maritime Security: Counter-Terrorism Lessons from Maritime Piracy and Narcotics Interdiction E.R. Lucas,S. Rivera-Paez,T. Crosbie,2020-08-04 It can be easy to forget the critical role that maritime transport plays in the global economy but international maritime transportation is still responsible for around 90% of global trade Protecting the maritime infrastructure essential for this trade from terrorism is a major concern for the international community This book originates from the NATO Advanced Research Workshop ARW Counter Terrorism Lessons from Maritime Piracy and Narcotics Interdiction held in Copenhagen Denmark in May 2019 Participants in the three day workshop included policymakers senior military officers and academics from NATO member states international organizations and two partner nations Colombia and Israel Their extensive discussions focused on methods for protecting critical maritime infrastructure such as ports supplies and personnel from seaborne terrorist attacks Presentations and roundtables also addressed the human and social factors that contribute to the defense against terrorism in the maritime domain The book is divided into three sections organized crime and narcotrafficking maritime piracy and terrorism and aims to bridge the gaps between these three substantive areas of maritime security research These have remained largely separate areas of research in the past with the result that valuable maritime security lessons from counter piracy and counter narcotics operations have not been fully incorporated into counter terrorism best practice The book facilitates the transmission of lessons learned from counter piracy and counter narcotic operations to formulate recommendations for best practice and technological innovations to manage maritime terrorism and will be of interest to all those working in the field

Education System in Saudi Arabia Md. Muddassir Quamar,2020-12-17 This book is a comprehensive study on the education system of Saudi Arabia placing the reforms and changes it has undergone in the past two decades within the context of the historical evolution of the education system An education system cannot be seen in isolation of the society it plays a significant role in shaping the individual state and the society that in turn have a bearing on the education system and its evolution Therefore this book locates Saudi education in the backdrop of the changes in the society how they have facilitated or hindered the education reforms and how the education reforms have impacted the society The book does not ignore the immediate trigger for the beginning of a comprehensive reforms process but goes beyond it to find much deeper socio political and economic rationales that paved the way for the reforms It provides a nuanced understanding of the interplays of various socioeconomic as well as political factors that have shaped the education system in Saudi Arabia

States of Subsistence José Ciro Martínez,2022-04-12 On any given day in Jordan more than nine million residents eat approximately ten million loaves of khubz arabi the slightly leavened flatbread known to many as pita Some rely on this bread to avoid starvation for others it is a customary pleasure Yet despite its ubiquity in accounts of Middle East politics and society rarely do we consider how bread is prepared consumed discussed and circulated and what this all represents With this book Jos Ciro Mart nez examines khubz arabi to unpack the effects of the welfare program that ensures its widespread availability Drawing on more than a year working as a baker in Amman Mart nez probes the practices that underpin subsidized bread Following bakers and bureaucrats he offers an immersive examination of social welfare provision Mart nez argues that the state is best understood as the product of routine practices and actions through which it becomes a stable truth in the lives of citizens States of Subsistence not only describes logics of rule in contemporary Jordan and the place of bread within them but also unpacks how the state endures through forms sensations and practices amid the seemingly unglamorous and unspectacular day to day

Fighting Machines Dan Saxon,2021-12-03 This book addresses the relationship between lethal autonomous weapon systems human dignity and international law Its central thesis is that the delegation of human responsibility for moral judgments to lethal autonomous weapon systems erodes human dignity and consequently international law
