Story (And Think About It) Robert Graham, 2017-09-16 Short story publishing is flourishing in the 21st century and is no longer seen as a poor relation of the novel But what is a short story And how do you write one Robert Graham takes you through everything you need to know from how a writer works to crafting and editing your own fiction This heavily revised edition features new chapters by contemporary fiction writers Stressing the importance of reading broadly and deeply the book includes a wide range of prompts and writing exercises It teaches you how to read as a writer and write like somebody who has read You will learn the elements of craft you need to produce short stories and one of the key writer's disciplines reflecting on your own work Whether you are a student or an experienced author this book will teach you how to write short stories and reflect on the creative processes involved The book features chapters from writer teachers James Friel Rodge Glass Ursula Hurley Heather Leach Helen Newall Jenny Newman James Rice and Tom Vowler Liminality and the Short Story Jochen Achilles, Ina Bergmann, 2014-12-05 This book is a study of the short story one of the widest taught genres in English literature from an innovative methodological perspective Both liminality and the short story are well researched phenomena but the combination of both is not frequent This book discusses the relevance of the concept of liminality for the short story genre and for short story cycles emphasizing theoretical perspectives methodological relevance and applicability Liminality as a concept of demarcation and mediation between different processual stages spatial complexes and inner states is of obvious importance in an age of global mobility digital networking and interethnic transnationality Over the last decade many symposia exhibitions art and publications have been produced which thematize liminality covering a wide range of disciplines including literary geographical psychological and ethnicity studies Liminal structuring is an essential aspect of the aesthetic composition of short stories and the cultural messages they convey On account of its very brevity and episodic structure the generic liminality of the short story privileges the depiction of transitional situations and fleeting moments of crisis or decision It also addresses the moral transgressions heterotopic orders and forms of ambivalent self reflection negotiated within the short story's confines This innovative collection focuses on both the liminality of the short story and on liminality in the short story Highland Cathedral, Creativity and Learning in Secondary English Andrew McCallum, 2012-05-23 Creativity in secondary English lessons today is a democratically conceived quality that all pupils are expected to achieve and a resource on which all are entitled to draw But what exactly is creativity And how does it relate to English Creativity and Learning in Secondary English answers these questions and others by arguing for a version of creativity that sees it as an ordinary everyday part of successful classroom practice central to processes of meaning making dialogic interaction and textual engagement In this construction creativity is not just linked to learning it is the driving force behind learning itself offering pupils the opportunity to transform their knowledge and understanding of the world around them This book borrows from a range of theories about creativity and about learning while remaining largely practical in focus It contains numerous examples for teachers of how to apply ideas about creativity in the classroom In doing so it attempts to maintain the subject's core identity while also keeping abreast of contemporary social pedagogical and technological developments. The result is a refreshing challenge to some of the more mundane approaches to English teaching on offer in an age focussed excessively on standardisation and teaching to tests. Practical applications of creativity include Using picture books and graphic novels to stimulate multimodal responses. Placing pupils in the role of the teacher. Devising marketing campaigns for class novels. Adopting experimental approaches to redrafting. Encouraging extreme forms of re-creative writing. Focusing on how to listen to texts. Creating soundscapes for poems. Thought provoking and provocative. This textbook draws on current best practice in English teaching and will equip trainee and practising teachers with a wide range of strategies that will lead to greater creativity in the classroom.

Every Person in New York Jason

Polan, 2015-08-18 From the late artist's unfinished project a compendium of drawings capturing the characters and character of New York City. Jason Polan was on a mission to draw every person in New York from cab drivers to celebrities. He drew people eating at Taco Bell, admiring paintings at the Museum of Modern Art and sleeping on the subway. With a foreword by Kristen Wiig, Every Person in New York Volume 1 collects thousands of Polan's energetic drawings in one chunky book. As full as a phone book and as invigorating as a walk down a bustling New York street, this is a love letter of sorts to a beloved city and the people who live there. In 2008, illustrator Jason Polan set out to capture the enormous human poetics compressed in Gotham's geographic smallness by drawing every person in the city. The first seven years of this ongoing project totaling drawings of 30,000 people are now collected in Every Person in New York, a marvelous tome of Polan's black and white line drawings colored in with the intense aliveness of a city where, as E. B. White wrote more than half a century earlier, wonderful events are taking place every minute. What emerges is a kind of poetry: fragmentary glimpses of ideas and images commanded by an internal rhythm to paint a complete whole of this human hive. Brain Pickings: This digest of sketches brings to life the everyday moments of New Yorkers and finds a spark of excitement in the sometimes banal shuffle of city living. Monocle magazine: Polan's drawings exude in unbroken but flexible lines the momentum of a Manhattan streetscape with only brief moments of stillness. Those pauses can last minutes or over an hour, enough time for fully textured impressionistic portraits. But more often, Mr Polan's drawings are of scenes that pass in seconds: a father ordering hot dogs for his stubborn children or Diane Keaton trying to hail a cab. The New York Times.
