

Does either and explain how each does this differently in the policymaking process? (what powers does each hold that the other does not?)	-Senate structure 5-35 -Impeachment power	-Senate is not Court and power (Presidential appointments confirmation) -Ratify the other -Hold impeachment trial
---	--	---

Special Notes:

- By design, the different structures, powers, and functions of the U.S. Senate and House of Representatives affect the policymaking process.
- Though both chambers rely on committees to conduct hearings and debate bills under consideration, different congressional committees of the House and Senate affect the policymaking process.
