Spring, 2014-12-30 Be what you wish your child to be the saying goes So much is accomplished by the power of example It influences children long before instruction can inform or authority can bind Rules constrain example is alluring Rules compel example persuades Rules are a dead law example a living law Next to the law of conscience example is the first law with which children are acquainted and it often remains their strongest motive to action after all others are forgotten Children are imitative beings and they quickly understand what they see and hear The example of an affectionate and watchful parent is a powerful influence No child is too young to be the accurate observer of its parent's conduct and to be purified or contaminated by that example However unwittingly we are constantly molding our children's minds habit and character by the power of our example Who among us desires for our children to be unyielding overbearing contemptuous unkind unfriendly or discourteous But if they discover these in us our example will govern their conduct Perhaps most to the point in this very affluent society we do not want our children to be afraid of work or hardship so why do we ourselves pursue fashion and leisure The message quickly forms in their minds My parents do not consider hard work or diligence or redeeming the time to be reputable or pleasurable They are satisfied with an easy life With such a message is it likely that our children will aspire to hard work usefulness and accomplishment We want our children to be honorable and completely truthful We want them to be punctual and thorough But if they hear us extolling these virtues and know that instead we bend the truth and are disorganized and careless will not our conduct trump our teaching Love No Matter What Brenda Garrison, 2013-03-11
