The Caribbean Hurricane Experience

Hurricanes are a fact of life in the Caribbean (See Appendix I). Within the past nine years, from 1988 through 1997, several hurricanes have unleashed their fury on the islands of the Caribbean. Hurricanes David in 1979, Allen in 1980, Gilbert in 1988, Hugo in 1989 and Luis and Marilyn in 1995 caused significant damage to hotels in Dominica, St. Lucia, Jamaica, Montserrat, Antigua, only a shift from an oral to a written tradition They also show hybrid perspectives on the Cajun collective memory Based on recurring references to place the texts also reflect on the Acadian past and reveal the innate ability of the Cajuns to adapt through repeated intertextual references The Cajun collective memory is thus defined by a transnational outlook a transversality cutting across various ethnic heritages to establish and legitimize a collective identity both amid the linguistic and cultural diversity in Louisiana and in the face of American mainstream culture Cajun Literature and Cajun Collective Memory represents the first analysis of the mnemonic strategies Cajun writers use to explore and sustain the Cajun identity and collective memory

Selected Plays by Griselda Gambaro Griselda Gambaro, 2022-04-21 Griselda Gambaro is arguably one of Argentina's most important dramatists as well as a playwright of international significance whose poetics not only interpret Argentine reality but transcend cultural and geographical borders Despite international recognition her plays remain little performed in the UK an absence which makes this anthology of new translations a welcome contribution to British theatre culture and to the English speaking stage Prolific since the 1960s Gambaro's plays are radical subversive and endlessly inventive in the use of form and theatricality This is a theatre of resistance which has the potential to make searing comments on our own domestic and political contexts an experience which may not be comfortable but is always vital Dazzling original incisive and poetic this anthology shows Griselda Gambaro at the height of her creative powers Siamese Twins 1967 In this charged and forceful play two brothers one weak one strong play out a primal scene of envy cruelty and torture as one exerts his power and aggression over the other Mother by Trade 1999 In a stark process of truth and reconciliation a daughter meets her estranged mother forty years after she abandoned her as an infant As the Dream Dictates 2002 How can we look to the future if there is great trauma in our past In this play only the untethered thinking that comes with dreaming allows us the freedom to imagine Asking Too Much 2004 In this enigmatic two hander the roles played by a man and a woman in the game of human attachment are renegotiated Persistence 2007 Inspired by the real life event of the 2004 Beslan massacre in Russia Persistence is a poetic play which goes to the heart of human tragedy Dear Ibsen I Am Nora 2013 Nora the character created by Henrik Ibsen in A Doll's House decides to confront her creator and to debate with him her own words and actions The Gift 2015 Margara is a woman with the gift of prophecy but people do not believe her even though she predicts hope for the world Will humanity be able to hear her

America and the Caribbean June Carolyn Erlick,2021-02-03 Natural Disasters in Latin America and the Caribbean Coping with Calamity explores the relationship between natural disasters and civil society immigration and diaspora communities and the long term impact on emotional health Natural disasters shape history and society and in turn their long range impact is determined by history and society This is especially true in Latin America and the Caribbean where climate change is increasing the frequency and intensity of these extreme events Ranging from pre Columbian flooding in the Andes to the devastation of Hurricane Maria in Puerto Rico this book focuses on long range recovery and recuperation rather than short term disaster relief Written in the time of the coronavirus pandemic the author shows how lessons learned about civil society governance climate change inequality and trauma from natural disasters have their echoes in the challenges of today's uncertain world This book is well suited to the classroom and will be an asset to students of Latin American history environmental history and historical memory

Performance, Trauma and Puerto Rico in Musical Theatre Colleen Rua,2023-08-11 This study positions four musicals and their associated artists as mobilizers of defiant joy in relation to trauma and healing in Puerto Rico This book argues that the historical trajectory of these musicals has formed a canon of works that have reiterated resisted or transformed experiences of trauma through linguistic ritual and geographic interventions These traumas may be disaster related migrant related colonial or patriarchal Bilingualism and translation ritual action and geographic space engage moments of trauma natural disaster incarceration death and healing community celebration grieving emancipation in these works The musicals considered are West Side Story 1957 2009 2019 The Capeman 1998 In the Heights 2008 and Hamilton 2015 Central to this argument is that each of the musicals discussed is tied to Puerto Rico either through the representation of Puerto Rican characters and stories or through the Puerto Rican positionality of its creators The author moves beyond the musicals to consider Lin Manuel Miranda as an embodied site of healing that has been met with controversy as well as post Hurricane Maria relief efforts led by Miranda on the island and from a distance In each of the works discussed acts of belonging shape notions of survivorship and witness This book also opens a dialogue between these musicals and the work of island based artists Y no hab a luz that has served as sites of first response to disaster This book will be of interest to students and scholars in Latinx Theatre Musical Theatre and Translation studies

The Works of Lord Byron George Gordon Byron Baron Byron,1852 The Last Call Mohamad Idrakisayah,2020-06-24 The current state of Islamophobia has distanced many from learning about Islam and ironically in some cases even the Muslims began to doubt the teachings of Islam There is a clear lack of understanding among the non Muslims and the deviant acts of some Muslims in the name of Islam jeopardises this even further Discussions are made on these selected verses to prove how the Quran addresses the current political economic and social problems that beleaguers the world today These are words of God which has provided perfect solutions to the woes of mankind of the past and would continue to do so in the present and future      Political Handbook of the World 2022-2023 Tom Lansford,2023-06-27 The Political Handbook of the World 2022 2023 provides timely thorough and accurate political information with more in depth coverage of current political controversies than any other reference guide The updated 2022 2023 edition continues to be the most authoritative source for finding complete facts and analysis on each country s governmental and political makeup Tom Lansford has compiled in one place more than 200 entries on countries and territories throughout the world this volume is renowned for its extensive coverage of all major and minor political parties and groups in each political system It also provides names of key ambassadors and international memberships of each country plus detailed profiles of more than 30 intergovernmental organizations and UN agencies And this update will aim to include coverage of current events issues crises and controversies from the course of the last two years
