German Gold Roman Blood Jeffrey Leporati, 2019-08-19 There is a disconnect between rulers and those they govern Their power and the people they wield guides the historical narrative often distorting the truth But sometimes in rare moments of magnificence by individual heroic unselfish acts all of their bluster and pretense is rendered insignificant Mere window dressing for simple souls in need of comfort and reassurance Easily swayed For every great society thousands will toil and suffer Many will claim credit Only one will have earned it When magnificence was common In 9AD German barbarians will rise up in rebellion Annihilate 3 of Rome's finest Legions destroy a dozen forts and drive the Romans from their land United they will stop Rome's northern expansion forever and begin the destruction of Rome itself saving Western civilization from an evil Empire Erased from the record is 52 days that will change it all Arminius: or, the deliverance of Germany, a tragedy Charles Knight, 1814 The Works of Beaumont and Fletcher Francis Beaumont, 1854 The Englishman's magazine [ed. by E.
