

BLACK INK PUBLICATIONS

The background of the entire cover is a dark, high-contrast photograph. It depicts a person wearing a black hooded sweatshirt. The person's face is obscured by a clear visor that is shattered, with numerous cracks radiating from a central point. In the lower foreground, a hand wearing a black tactical glove is visible, holding a knife with a silver blade. The hand is positioned as if about to cut or having just cut. The overall aesthetic is gritty and violent, consistent with the 'Killa Season' theme.
