No. 3: Abihu—Prominence Does Not Excuse Disobedience—if-1 p. 22 (5 min.)

☐ Service Meeting:

Song 88

15 min: Family Worship That Refreshes. Interview a family regarding their family worship. Of what does their program consist? How do they determine what to discuss? What tools available on jw.org have they used? How has their program helped them in the ministry? How do they prevent other activities from disrupting their schedule? How have they benefited from their program of family worship?

15 min: “Improving Our Skills in the Ministry—Responding to Potential Conversation Stoppers.” Discussion. Consider two or three potential conversation stoppers that publishers may encounter, and invite comments on how we might respond. Remind publishers that they will have an opportunity to relate experiences during the week of April 7.

Song 97 and Prayer

Improving Our Skills in the Ministry—Responding to Potential Conversation Stoppers

Why Important: Imagine that you know that a natural disaster is imminent. People will die unless they flee to safety. You go to a neighbor’s home to warn him, but he interrupts you, saying that he is busy. Surely, you would not quickly abandon your efforts to help him! Many in our territory turn us away, not realizing the life-saving value of our message. At the time of our visit, perhaps they are preoccupied. (Matt. 24:37-39) Or maybe they have been prejudiced by untrue rumors. (Matt. 11:18, 19) They might assume that we are no different from the religions that have produced bad fruitage. (2 Pet. 2:1, 2) If the householder initially is not interested, we should not be quick to give up.

How to Do It:

- Before preaching from house to house, take a few moments to think about potential conversation stoppers that you may encounter and consider how to respond.
- If the householder presents an objection, gently try to continue the conversation. Perhaps you can do that by commending him. For example, if he says that he has his own religion, you might reply, “I was hoping to find someone like you who has an interest in spiritual things.” Sometimes acknowledging the householder’s feelings or circumstances will enable you to continue giving a witness. For instance, if he says that he is busy, you might say: “I understand. But before I leave, I would like to give you this.” Another option is to ask a question if the householder says that he is not interested. You could say, “Do you mean that you are not interested in the Bible, or is it religion in general that does not interest you?”
- Use good judgment. Remember that Jehovah does not force people to listen. (Deut. 30:19) Everyone must carry his own load of spiritual responsibility. (Gal. 6:5) If the householder is adamant, it is best to take our leave. By demonstrating respect for his feelings, we may open the door for another publisher to give a witness in the future. —1 Pet. 3:15.

Try This During the Month:

- When you encounter a potential conversation stopper, after leaving the householder, discuss with your partner how you might have responded in a better way.

Freedom of Information Matthew Burgess, 2015-06-19 Freedom of Information A Practical Guide for UK Journalists is written to inform, instruct and inspire journalists on the investigative possibilities offered by the Freedom of Information Act. Covering exactly what the Act is, how to make FOI requests and how to use the Act to hold officials to account, Matt Burgess utilises expert opinions, relevant examples and best practice from journalists and investigators working with the Freedom of Information Act at all levels. The book is brimming with illuminating and relevant examples of the Freedom of Information Act being used by journalists alongside a range of helpful features including end of chapter lists of tips and learning points, sections addressing the different areas of FOI requests, text boxes on key thoughts and cases, interviews with leading contemporary journalists and figures working with FOI requests. Supported by the online FOI Directory www.foidirectory.co.uk Freedom of Information A Practical Guide for UK Journalists is a must read for all those training or working as journalists on this essential tool for investigating, researching and reporting.

Education System in Saudi Arabia Md. Muddassir Quamar, 2020-12-17 This book is a comprehensive study on the education system of Saudi Arabia, placing the reforms and changes it has undergone in the past two decades within the context of the historical evolution of the education system. An education system cannot be seen in isolation of the society; it plays a significant role in shaping the individual state and the society that in turn have a bearing on the education system and its evolution. Therefore, this book locates Saudi education in the backdrop of the changes in the society, how they have facilitated or hindered the education reforms, and how the education reforms have impacted the society. The book does not ignore the immediate trigger for the beginning of a comprehensive reforms process but goes beyond it to find much deeper socio-political and economic rationales that paved the way for the reforms. It provides a nuanced understanding of the interplays of various socioeconomic as well as political factors that have shaped the education system in Saudi Arabia.

Domestic Application of the ECHR Eirik Bjorge, 2015-10-22 Domestic courts are entrusted with the application of the European Convention on Human Rights ECHR as faithful trustees of the rights protected in the Convention This book analyses the way in which the domestic courts in the United Kingdom France and Germany apply the ECHR and how applying the Convention they define their relationship with the European Court of Human Rights Contrary to what others have contended the book argues that it is not true descriptively nor desirable normatively that the domestic courts approach the ECHR based upon friction and assertion of sovereignty vis vis the European Court The proper role played by the domestic courts and the one which they have taken on them to perform in fact is to apply the Convention in all good faith building on the principles of the Convention as set out in the jurisprudence of the European Court But if domestic courts are in a position to apply the ECHR in the first place it is because the application of the Convention has been entrusted to them by the other organs of the municipal state in certain cases municipal principles of the separation of powers have an important bearing on domestic interpretation and application of the Convention

Domestic Application of the ECHR Courts as Faithful Trustees shows that through their faithful application of the ECHR domestic courts can and do make a positive contribution to the development of the law of the Convention

Sanctions Regimes of Multilateral Development Banks Jelena Madir, 2020-11-30 In Sanctions Regimes of Multilateral Development Banks What Process is Due Jelena Madir examines the type of due process rights that should characterise sanctions regimes of multilateral development banks MDBs By benchmarking against comparable regimes including the jurisprudence of the European Court of Human Rights and administrative tribunals of international organisations the author analyses the extent to which MDBs sanctions regimes should be bound by the rules of law analogous to those of national judicial bodies and the level of due process and transparency that should be required from these ever evolving regimes that are generally immune from judicial review The book should be of use to scholars practicing lawyers and legal advisers in government and international organisations as well as to lawyers whose practice concerns global sanctions and MDBs privileges and immunities

Indian Ocean and Maritime Security Bimal N. Patel, Aruna Kumar Malik, William Nunes, 2016-11-03 This book provides a synoptic view of the Indian Ocean and maritime security in its contested waters The volume highlights the competition between major Asian powers to control the Indian Ocean periphery shows that cooperation amongst the major regional powers could abate the threat of the potential of conflict becoming global and inviting external intervention and discusses India's Look East policy and the deepening relation between India and ASEAN It argues for the need for Indian Ocean states and particularly SAARC members of the Indian Ocean Rim Association to look afresh at their political and security issues and common interests It also suggests measures for evolving a robust mechanism of maintaining the Indian Ocean as a sustainable zone of commerce energy security and peace rather than threat
