The Dynamics of Change in Modern World Politics Jean

Kachiga, 2018-04-04 In modern world politics there exists a dynamic of change and an observable pattern of phenomena These phenomena consist of driving forces of new paradigms that their exigencies induce of new epochs that such exigencies provoke of adjustments made by states who may be initiators new comers late comers or inactive and of shifts in the hierarchy of world powers that the differentiated rate of their adjustment success produces causing what power shift theory refers to as hegemonic transition This book examines the conditions under which such change occurs the recurrence of such change in various epochs of the modern era and the pattern that such recurrence displays in order to explain the recurrent shift in the hierarchy of wealth status and power among peer states

REElification, 2011

Challenge of Politics, 4th Edition Neal Riemer, Douglas W. Simon, Joseph Romance, 2013-02-15 So often political science is introduced to students as a segmented field The Challenge of Politics instead enables students to see how the subfields converge around a set of crucial questions can we as citizens and students articulate and defend a view of the good political life and its guiding political values Can we develop a science of politics to help us understand significant political phenomena the empirical realities of politics Can we bring a high level of political prudence or wisdom to bear on judgments about politics and public issues Can citizens and students creatively address the future of politics Riemer Simon and Romance aim to harmonize the valuable lessons of classic and contemporary theory as well as to reconcile politics to scientific and empirical study The book gives students an avenue to explore the impact of philosophy and ideology to recognize major forms of government to evaluate empirical findings and to understand how policy issues directly affect people's lives Throughout the authors look at political dynamics of American comparative and international affairs While continuing to pursue its distinctive normative approach and showing politics to be a potentially humanizing enterprise this new edition of Challenge has been revised and updated for major world events like the global financial crisis recent elections in the U S and elsewhere important policy decisions like the recent Supreme Court ruling in the U S on healthcare and the aftermath of the Arab Spring Based on reviewer feedback it has also been substantially streamlined throughout

Africans and Negative Competition in Canadian Factories Ateh-Afac

Fossungu,2015-02-02 According to Fossungu we need healthy competition for progress Competition that is not geared toward progress is negative competition No competition or the absence of self help is negative competition With factories competing healthily consumers have a variety of quality goods and services from which to choose The entire community benefits when people in any grouping are competing positively thus making the rules of competition graphical The central focus of this book is the extent to which Canadian regulations apply without discrimination to all of Canada and to everyone individuals and corporations alike A swift answer is affirmative But is that really it The book is also about voluntary slavery which is worse than forced enslavement Drawing on Ignorance Theory the book argues that the worst thing that can happen to anyone is to be ignorant of one's ignorance He who does not know what he does not know will never know Voluntary African slaves generally employ One Has No Choice On na pas le choix to cloak their having chosen not to secure their rights Fossungu demonstrates why he considers this an escapist way of shying away from doing the normal thing thus giving the dictator or oppressor reason to dictate and oppress with impunity This is Fossungu at his provocative and controversial best
