Focus, 1978 Industrial Excellence Christoph H. Loch, Ludo van der Heyden, Luk N. van Wassenhove, Arnd Huchzermeier, Cedric Escalle, 2013-03-20 What does excellent manufacturing management mean Management texts to date have emphasized that it is above methods such as SPC or TQM a matter of intangibles and culture This book takes the myth out of management excellence it can be learned and practiced First manage the three core processes strategy deployment product and process development and the supply chain And secondly pay attention to the dimension of management quality direction setting integration and delegation communication participation measurement and employee development This book explains management quality and demonstrates how it is implemented with ten plant tours through world class factories from different industries

Designing Pan-America Robert Alexander González, 2023-09-30 Coinciding with the centennial of the Pan American Union now the Organization of American States Gonz lez explores how nineteenth and twentieth century U S architects and their clients built a visionary Pan America to promote commerce and cultural exchange between United States and Latin America Late in the nineteenth century U S commercial and political interests began eyeing the countries of Latin America as plantations farms and mines to be accessed by new shipping lines and railroads As their desire to dominate commerce and trade in the Western Hemisphere grew these U S interests promoted the concept of Pan Americanism to link the United States and Latin America and called on U S architects to help set the stage for Pan Americanism s development Through international expositions monuments and institution building U S architects translated the concept of a united Pan American sensibility into architectural or built form In the process they also constructed an artificial ideological identity a fictional Pan America peopled with imaginary Pan American citizens the hemispheric loyalists who would support these projects and who were the presumed benefactors of this presumed architecture of unification Designing Pan America presents the first examination of the architectural expressions of Pan Americanism Concentrating on U S architects and their clients Robert Alexander Gonz lez demonstrates how they proposed designs reflecting U S presumptions and projections about the relationship between the United States and Latin America This forgotten chapter of American architecture unfolds over the course of a number of international expositions ranging from the North Central and South American Exposition of 1885 1886 in New Orleans to Miami s unrealized Interama fair and San Antonio s HemisFair 68 and encompassing the Pan American Union headquarters building in Washington D C and the creation of the Columbus Memorial Lighthouse in the Dominican Republic
