How to Write Technical Reports Lutz Hering, Heike Hering, 2010-10-14 Technical Reports are usually written according to general standards corporate sign standards of the current university or company logical rules and practical experiences. These rules are not known well enough among engineers. There are many books that give general advice in writing. This book is specialised in how to write Technical Reports and addresses not only engineers but also natural scientists computer scientists etc. It is based on the 6 edition published in 2008 by Vieweg in German and is now published as 1 edition by Springer in English. Both authors of the German edition have long experience in educating engineers at the University of Applied Sciences Hannover. They have held many lectures where students had to write reports and took notes about all positive and negative examples that occurred in design reports lab work reports and in theses. Prof Dr Lutz Hering has worked for VOLKSWAGEN and DAIMLER and then changed to the University of Applied Sciences Hannover where he worked from 1974 until 2000. He held lectures on Technical Drawing Construction and Design CAD and Materials Science. Dr Heike Hering worked nine years as a Technical Writer and was responsible for many CAD manuals in German and English. She is now employed at TV NORD Akademie where she is responsible for E Learning projects technical documentation and software training and supervises students who are writing their theses.
