The Forgotten People Saleem Badat, 2013-01-29 The apartheid state employed many weapons against its opponents imprisonment banning detention assassination and banishment In a practice reminiscent of Tsarist and Soviet Russia a large number of enemies of the state were banished to remote areas far from their homes communities and followers Here their existence became a slow torture of the soul a kind of social death This is the first study of an important but hitherto neglected group of opponents of apartheid set in a global historical and comparative perspective It looks at the reasons why people were banished their lives in banishment and the efforts of a remarkable group of activists led by Helen Joseph to assist them

The Athenaeum, 1901

The Athenæum, 1919 Inside African Anthropology Andrew Bank, Leslie J. Bank, 2013-04-08 Inside African Anthropology offers an incisive biography of the life and work of South Africa's foremost social anthropologist Monica Hunter Wilson By exploring her main fieldwork and intellectual projects in southern Africa between the 1920s and 1960s the book offers insights into her personal and intellectual life Beginning with her origins in the remote Eastern Cape the authors follow Wilson to the University of Cambridge and back into the field among the Mpondo of South Africa where her studies resulted in her 1936 book Reaction to Conquest Her fieldwork focus then shifted to Tanzania where she teamed up with her husband Godfrey Wilson In the 1960s Wilson embarked on a new urban ethnography with a young South African anthropologist Archie Mafeje one of the many black scholars she trained This study also provides a meticulously researched exploration of the indispensable contributions of African research assistants to the production of this famous woman scholar s cultural knowledge about mid twentieth century Africa      Livelihoods and Landscapes Paul Hebinck, Peter Lent, 2007-07-30 Drawing on original data secondary literature aerial photographs and archives this book analyzes changes in the use of the landscape and the nature of rural livelihoods in two South African villages Taking an interdisciplinary approach on how livelihoods and landscapes in the Eastern Cape link the text provides a comprehensive study of the patterns of land use over time Three separate chapters focus on cropping and cultivation practices livestock and foraging as well as the gathering of wild plants The book gives a vivid picture of the social dynamics and the interaction between urban and rural It depicts the steady deterioration in agricultural production and the corresponding increase in dependence on social grants and wages Despite this trend remnants of a peasantry do exist      Digital Transformation in Public Sector Human Resource Management Shava, Elvin, Ndebele, Nduduzo, 2024-07-10 The advent of the Fourth Industrial Revolution 4IR has created a pressing need for digital transformation in human resources management HRM in public institutions Traditional practices must be updated preventing institutions from effectively managing their workforce and meeting stakeholder demands The lack of digitalization leads to inefficiencies ineffective performance evaluation and an inability to adapt to the rapidly evolving technological landscape This gap between existing HR practices and the demands of the digital age poses a significant challenge for public sector organizations Digital Transformation in Public Sector Human Resource Management offers a comprehensive solution to the challenges faced by public institutions The book provides practical insights and strategies for aligning HR practices with the modern technological landscape by exploring how digital transformation can revolutionize HRM processes It demonstrates the benefits of adopting digital technologies and innovative strategies in public sector HRM through real world examples and case studies The book guides public sector professionals policymakers and academics helping them navigate the complexities of digital transformation in HRM      Annual Report on Basutoland Great Britain.
