

Readers' Theater Fractured Fairy Tale: Cindy Rella

This Middle School Readers' Theater script will spark fun and chuckles in both drama and ELA classes. It gives grades 5-8 students high interest practice in reading aloud, comprehension and writing. After completing the script they will write an additional scene, AND make a 'pitch' to promote a fractured fairy story of their own. There's even a quick mystery about a missing item for them to solve!

Cindy Rella is obviously based on the children's tale. In this 21st century re-telling of the classic story Cindy does indeed live in an unhappy home where there is far too much concentration on cleaning, but it is the shoe obsessed Cindy (forever buying shoes from Amazon) who is the bully. Only her Godfather knows the unhappiness and envy that causes Cindy to behave badly. Cindy goes to the ball and meets Hans Summ, singer of the best-selling band the Charmers, yet the tale ends differently from the way your students will anticipate. The script is intended for 9 readers, but the number of readers can easily be contracted or expanded, depending on how many groups you wish to have.

After finishing the script students have to discuss and write on five questions, do a script writing task, write a fractured story plot pitch AND perform a fun jokes activity.

Quick peer and self assessment forms are provided, and a reading rubric for easy marking.

Truth and Rumors Bill Brioux, 2007-12-30 When you first heard it you couldn't believe it Jerry Mathers from TV's Leave It To Beaver had been killed in Vietnam Then word came that Abe Vigoda the actor who played the curmudgeonly cop Fish on Barney Miller was dead and that Mikey who would eat anything as the Life Cereal tyke had eaten too many Pop Rocks and exploded Besides exposing us to things we couldn't otherwise believe television can convince us of things that never actually happened But how did these outrageous TV legends get started How did they spread from classrooms to boardrooms across North America and beyond And most important what do these rumors so quickly transformed into facts and common knowledge reveal about our relationship to reality through the medium of television Put in other words what exactly is it that we're doing when we're dealing in these fabulous rumors are we chasing after surprising truths or simply more incredible entertainment To take one telling example Jerry Mathers was not actually killed in Vietnam but the basic sense of this lie wasn't far removed from the emotions factually expressed in the two-page spread of the faces of the dead in Time magazine In the course of this compelling work which is supplemented with interviews with many of the people implicated in these rumors author Bill Brioux exposes the reality behind the many stories that currently circulate in our culture Through these stories both true and false he sheds a revealing light on just what role these rumors play in contemporary society and what role our society plays in regard to these rumors as well
