VOLUME II TEACHER NOTES

Chapter 8

1. How is Frankenstein's feeling now that Frankenstein has had some time to process the monster's request? Frankenstein notes his "repugnance to the task which was imposed on" and laments that his father's thought with the law will require a substantial amount of time, energy, and emotional investment (140).

2. What proposal does Mr. Frankenstein have for Frankenstein? How does Frankenstein feel about the idea? Mr. Frankenstein would like Frankenstein to marry Elizabeth as soon as possible, so their union will help alleviate the family's grief and despair following William and Justine's death (140). Frankenstein feels a sense of "horror" and "dread" because his father's suggestion is motivated by the monster's demand for a companion (141).

3. What plan does Frankenstein arrange with his father? What? Frankenstein arranges a two-year-long journey through England and France with Henry Clerval, which would give him time to work on the monster's companion without feeling pressure from his family or influence from the monster (141).

4. What role do nature and the natural world play in this chapter? Frankenstein continues to reflect on his perceptions of the natural world around him as he travels through the countryside and mountainous landscapes. Clerval values his proposed education for nature, while Frankenstein values his own proposed love for the world around him (140). While the nature of his monster, Frankenstein's love of nature seems to be tarnished.
