Studies in the History of the English Language VI Michael Adams, Laurel J. Brinton, R.D. Fulk, 2014-12-12 The relationships among data evidence and methodology in English historical linguistics are perennially vexed This volume which ranges chronologically from Old to Present Day English and from manuscripts to corpora challenges a wide variety of assumptions and practices and illustrates how diverse methods and approaches construct evidence for historical linguistic arguments from an increasingly large and diverse body of linguistic data

A Modern History of the Kurds David McDowall, 2021-03-25 David McDowall's ground breaking history of the Kurds from the 19th century to the present day documents the underlying dynamics of the Kurdish question The division of the Kurdish people among the modern nation states of Iraq Turkey Syria and Iran and their struggle for national rights continues to influence the politics of the Middle East Drawing extensively on primary sources including documents from The National Archive and interviews with prominent Kurds the book examines the interplay of old and new aspects of the struggle the importance of local rivalries and leadership within Kurdish society and the failure of modern states to respond to the challenge of Kurdish nationalism In this new and revised edition McDowall also analyses the momentous transformations affecting Kurdish socio politics in the last 20 years With updates throughout and substantial new material included this fourth edition of the book reflects the developments in the field and the areas which have gained importance and understanding This includes new analysis of the Kurdish experience in Syria the role of political Islam in Kurdish society and Kurds involvement in Islamist Jihad and issues surrounding women and gender that were previously overlooked from the impact of the women's equality movement to how patriarchal practices within the Kurdish community still limit its progress The foundation text for Kurdish Studies this book highlights in detail the changing situation of the Kurds across the Middle East

A History of Irish Working-Class Writing Michael Pierse, 2018 Michael Pierse is Lecturer in Irish literature at Queen's University Belfast His research mainly explores the writing and cultural production of Irish working class life Over recent years this work has expanded into new multidisciplinary themes and international contexts including the study of festivals digital methodologies in public humanities and theatre as research practices Michael has contributed to a range of national and international publications is the author of Writing Ireland's Working Class Dublin after O Casey 2011 and has been awarded several Arts and Humanities Research Council awards and the Vice Chancellor's Award at Queen's

A History of Sautee Nacoochee Tommy Hart Jones, 2025-05-01 Virtually every landscape is a palimpsest created by the imprint however ephemeral that people have left everywhere they have been As one peels back layers of history the true nature of a place can be better understood A History of Sautee Nacoochee does precisely this for a small Appalachian community with a remarkably long history Sautee Nacoochee is a rural community located in White County in northeastern Georgia It is centered around two large valleys Sautee drained by Sautee Creek and Nacoochee drained by the Chattahoochee River In the broadest terms this book synthesizes an enormous amount of information from many disparate sources into a narrative that identifies historical contexts that documents and incorporates site specific information and that strives to illuminate the lives of the people who over many centuries of human occupation and in many different ways contributed to making Sautee

Nacoochee what it is today It is not a typical pioneer history Indeed Tommy Hart Jones illuminates the lives of all the people who have occupied the valleys over many thousands of years and connects the deep past to the present

The history of youth work in Europe, Volume 5 - Autonomy through dependency Siurala, Lasse, Coussée, Filip, Suurpää, Leena, Williamson, Howard, Council of Europe, 2016-05-17 The History of youth work in Europe series aims to achieve better understanding of current challenges in youth work and youth policy Volume 5 addresses questions like How have government policies and administrative practices over the past few decades affected youth work What kind of strategies has youth work developed to react to them and to create a positive space for work with young people Can educational approaches of youth work like social pedagogy help mediate between young people in their ever changing lives and society Co operation between youth policy youth research and youth work has been called the Magic Triangle but is the magic still there This publication discusses these and other topics from a variety of perspectives The authors come not only from Europe but also from the USA Australia and South Africa providing a refreshing comparative reflection on youth work issues and opportunities which is revealed to be global in nature They also have diverse and varied backgrounds in youth research youth work youth policy making and youth worker training This comparative historical perspective puts some of the pieces of the youth work puzzle together while many are left unconnected It also becomes apparent that there is an element of randomness in the historical development of youth work Many structures policies approaches and methods are not historically necessary Rather many things could have come out differently This volume on the history of youth work provides many readings it provides a rich collection of national youth histories to complement and build upon the four earlier volumes and histories and analyses of youth work for readers to compare with their own experience sharpen their critical view and inspire their thinking

Corporate Strategy in the Age of Responsibility Peter McManners, 2016-05-13 As the era of ever expanding markets and ample resources ends governments and business will have to behave differently The world is facing weak economic growth limits to affordable resources and increasing concerns about environmental consequences During the boom times governments championed de regulation and business responded by adopting an anything goes attitude In these straitened times strategic analysis has to engage with the challenges that society faces to create resilient corporations fit for the 21st century In Corporate Strategy in the Age of Responsibility Peter McManners who has for nine years run strategy workshops on the Henley MBA focusing on the global business environment sets about providing a strategic framework for navigating the new economic environment Chief Sustainability Officers CSOs now exist but they struggle to find the strategic rationale for the improvements they champion The author argues that their good intentions often lack traction partly because others in management don't get it but also because they are not ambitious enough The book is not about preaching semi charitable behaviour or how to enhance the reputation of the corporation instead it is about surviving and thriving in a challenging and changing environment A corporate audience familiar with strategy books will relate to this book but will find it steers them towards radically new strategic thinking suitable for a turbulent period of transition
