Educational Oases in the Desert Jonathan Sciarcon,2017-06-21 During the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries the Alliance

Isra lite Universelle AIU a Paris based Jewish organization founded dozens of primary schools throughout the Middle East Many were the first formal educational institutions for local Jewish children In addition to providing secular education the schools attempted to change local customs and regenerate or uplift communities Educational Oases in the Desert explores the largely forgotten history of the AIU s schools for girls in Ottoman Iraq Drawing on extensive archival research Jonathan Sciarcon argues that teachers viewed female education through a gendered lens linked to their understanding of an ideal modern society As the primary educators of children women were seen as society s key agents of socialization The AIU thus concluded that its boys schools would never succeed in creating polished westernized men so long as women remained uneducated leading to the creation of schools for girls Sciarcon shows how headmistresses acted not just as educators but also as models of modernity trying to impart new moral and aesthetic norms onto students
