Essential Questions For Expository Writing:

Essential Questions in Adolescent Literacy Jill Lewis, 2009-05-04 In each chapter of this unique volume an exemplary teacher collaborates with a prominent scholar to present real world strategies for putting literacy research to work in grades 5-12. These lively dialogues tackle key questions in adolescent literacy including issues of motivation, critical thinking skills, content area writing, differentiated instruction, assessment, English language learning and technology. Suggestions for incorporating adolescents out of school literacies and working with reading specialists and coaches show how to build connections between the classroom and wider communities. In-depth portraits of challenges and successes in the classroom, practical instructional tips and stimulating questions for reflection make the book a valuable resource for inservice and preservice teachers.

Lesson Design for Differentiated Instruction, Grades 4-9 Kathy Tuchman Glass, 2009-01-14 The book provides helpful background information as well as a wide variety of examples of differentiated lessons, resource guides, reproducible templates and a selection of grading tools ranging from rubrics to graphic organizers. Allan Varni, Instructor and Regional Coordinator, Division of Continuing Education, University of San Diego. Glass examines the constructs of masterful teaching and makes them accessible to all. Her intensely practical and forthright approach allows readers to immediately translate the concepts of differentiation into their classrooms. Modell Marlow Andersen, Director of Educational Services, Hillsborough City School District, CA. Develop effective differentiated lessons that meet students' individual learning needs. Differentiation allows teachers to target student needs and engage all students according to their learning preferences. Designed for teachers who are new to differentiating instruction, this book provides step-by-step guidance for creating meaningful lessons in language arts, math, science and social studies at the upper elementary and middle school levels. Kathy Tuchman Glass helps teachers develop confidence and expertise in differentiating lessons, units and assessments and provides a detailed planning template, numerous examples and reproducibles. This user-friendly resource provides an overview of differentiation based on the backward design model. Discusses strategies for differentiating content, process and product. Helps teachers organize lessons around guiding or essential questions for students to explore. Shows how to take students' learning characteristics, readiness, interests, learning styles into consideration when planning lessons. Lesson Design for Differentiated Instruction, Grades 4-9 helps teachers plan differentiated lessons that will promote learning for every student.

Mapping Comprehensive Units to the ELA Common Core Standards, K-5 Kathy Tuchman Glass, 2012-04-26 Consultant and former teacher Glass helps K-5 teachers make sense of the new Common Core State Standards in English language arts/ELA and presents numerous classroom activities, differentiation ideas and rubrics. She introduces a process for developing a unit of study using the ELA Common Core Standards and includes a template with each key component explained in detail. There is also a lesson design template and sample lessons using the template. The website provides reproducibles for classroom use. Annotation 2012 Book News, Inc. Portland, OR: booknews.com
