Approaches to Teaching Jacobs's Incidents in the Life of a Slave Girl Lynn Domina, 2024-07-13 One of the most commonly taught slave narratives Harriet Jacobs's Incidents in the Life of a Slave Girl is rightly celebrated for its progressive and distinctive appeals to dismantle the dehumanizing system of American slavery. Depicting the abuse Jacobs experienced her years in hiding and her escape to the North, the work evokes sympathy for Jacobs as a woman and a mother. Today it continues to inform readers about gender and sexuality, power and justice, and Black identity in the United States. Part 1 of this volume, Materials, discusses different editions of the work and suggests background readings. The essays in part 2, Approaches, explore Jacobs's literary techniques and influences, drawing on autobiography, theory, medical humanities, and theology among other perspectives. Contributors also propose pairings with historical and recent literary works as well as teaching approaches involving visual arts, geography, archives, digital humanities, and service learning. Catalog of

From New Zion to Old Zion Joseph B. Glass, 2002 American aliyah immigration to Palestine began in the mid-nineteenth century, fueled by the desire of American Jews to study Torah and by their wish to live and be buried in the Holy Land. This movement of people, men and women, increased between World War I and II in direct contrast to the European Jewry's desire to immigrate to the United States. Why would American Jews want to leave America and what characterized their resettlement? From New Zion to Old Zion analyzes the migration of American Jews to Palestine between the two World Wars and explores the contribution of these settlers to the building of Palestine. Joseph B. Glass details the scope and scale of this migration, outlines the characteristics of the immigrants, and constructs profiles of four distinct immigrant groups: orthodox, middle class, agriculturists, urban professionals, and halutzim pioneers. Glass studies the motivational factors for emigration from the United States sources of information and available resources required for settlement and the political barriers to migration He examines the activities of the American Zion Commonwealth and its purchase and development of land in Palestine as well as the settlement initiatives of various American companies and aliyah societies Glass explores the role of individual men and women in urban and rural settlement on privately purchased and Jewish National Fund land From New Zion to Old Zion draws upon international archival correspondence newspapers maps photographs interviews and fieldwork to provide students and scholars of immigration and settlement processes the Yishuv Jewish community in Palestine and American Holy Land studies a well researched portrait of aliyah The Book of Genesis, Chapters 18-50
