Elliott, 2006-05-21 In early June of 2002 I left the United States and traveled to the locus of my own soul If one were to look at a map they would say that my destination was Israel specifically the Judean Desert and that I had traveled 6 497 miles But in actuality I traveled much farther than that upon a road whose traversing is not measured in miles but by the deepening of the human experience love and acceptance and not by direction for there is only one direction inward And whose perilous mountains cliffs and valleys were not composed of stone or sand but of one's own psyche the most dangerous of the world's creations In Bill Elliott's forty days in the Judean desert he learns many deep and poignant truths about himself his world and his relationship with God He reflects back on significant and insignificant moments in his life and
