Breaking Point Rebecca Schwartz Greene, 2023-01-03 WINNER SOCIETY FOR MILITARY HISTORY DISTINGUISHED BOOK AWARDS FIRST BOOK This book informs the public for the first time about the impact of American psychiatry on soldiers during World War II Breaking Point is the first in depth history of American psychiatry in World War II Drawn from unpublished primary documents oral histories and the author s personal interviews and correspondence over years with key psychiatric and military policymakers it begins with Franklin Roosevelt s endorsement of a universal Selective Service psychiatric examination followed by Army and Navy pre and post induction examinations Ultimately 2.5 million men and women were rejected or discharged from military service on neuropsychiatric grounds Never before or since has the United States engaged in such a program In designing Selective Service Medical Circular No 1 psychiatrist Harry Stack Sullivan assumed psychiatrists could predict who might break down or falter in military service or even in civilian life thereafter While many American and European psychiatrists questioned this belief and huge numbers of American psychiatric casualties soon raised questions about screening s validity psychiatric and military leaders persisted in 1942 and 1943 in endorsing ever tougher screening and little else Soon families complained of fathers and teens being drafted instead of being identified as psychiatric 4Fs and Blacks and Native Americans among others complained of bias A frustrated General George S Patton famously slapped two malingering neuropsychiatric patients in

Sicily a sentiment shared by Marshall and Eisenhower though they favored a tamer style Yet psychiatric rejections evacuations and discharges mounted While psychiatrist Roy Grinker and a few others treated soldiers close to the front in Tunisia in early 1943 this was the exception But as demand for manpower soared and psychiatrists finally went to the field and saw that combat itself not predisposition precipitated breakdown leading military psychiatrists switched their emphasis from screening to prevention and treatment But this switch was too little too late and slowed by a year long series of Inspector General investigations even while numbers of psychiatric casualties soared Ironically despite and even partly because of psychiatrists wartime performance plus the emotional toll of war postwar America soon witnessed a dramatic growth in numbers popularity and influence of the profession culminating in the National Mental Health Act 1946 But veterans with PTSD not recognized until 1980 were largely neglected

The Rocket Lab Michael G. Smith, 2023-05-15 The Rocket Lab Maurice Zucrow Purdue University and America's Race to Space focuses on the golden era of space exploration between 1946 and 1966 specifically the life and times of Purdue University's Dr Maurice J Zucrow a pioneering teacher and researcher in aerospace engineering Zucrow taught America's first university course in jet and rocket propulsion wrote the field's first textbook and established the country's first educational Rocket Lab He was part of a small circle of innovators who transformed Purdue into the country's largest engineering university which became a cradle of astronauts Taking a chronological and thematic approach The Rocket Lab weaves between the local and national drawing in rival universities especially Harvard MIT Princeton and Caltech Also covered is Zucrow's role in the national project system of research and development through World War II and the Cold War At Aerojet he was one of the country's original project engineers dedicated to scientific technical expertise and the stepwise approach He made vanguard power plant contributions to the Northrop Flying Wing as well as the Corporal Nike and Atlas missiles among others Zucrow's work in propulsion helped to improve the country's arsenal of ballistic missiles and space launchers and as a teacher he educated the first generation of aerospace engineers This book elevates Zucrow and the central role he played in getting the United States to space

Debating Modern Medical Technologies Karen J. Maschke, Michael K. Gusmano, 2018-09-14 This book analyzes policy fights about what counts as good evidence of safety and effectiveness when it comes to new health care technologies in the United States and what political decisions mean for patients and doctors Medical technologies often promise to extend and improve quality of life but come with many questions Are they safe and effective Are they worth the cost When should they be allowed on the market and when should Medicare Medicaid and private insurance companies be required to pay for drugs devices and diagnostic tests Using case studies of disputes about the value of mammography screening genetic testing for disease risk brain imaging technologies to detect biomarkers associated with Alzheimer's disease cell based therapies and new expensive drugs Maschke and Gusmano illustrate how scientific disagreements about what counts as good evidence of safety and effectiveness are often swept up in partisan fights over health care reform and battles among insurance and health care companies physicians and patient advocates Debating Modern Medical Technologies The Politics of Safety Effectiveness and Patient Access reveals stakeholders differing values and interests regarding patient choice physician autonomy risk assessment government intervention in medicine and technology assessment and scientific innovation as a driver of national and global economies It will help readers to understand the nature and complexity of past and current policy disagreements and their effects on patients
