Ideas	The story is clear and easy to understand. It has characters that seem like real people and a setting that's described well. The writer uses many interesting details.	The story stays on topic and includes characters and a setting. There are some details that help the reader picture what's happening in the story.	The story does not stay on topic. It may need more work on characters, setting, or the use of detail.
Organization	The story grabs the reader's attention at the beginning. The events happen in an order that makes sense. The story contains paragraphs. The story has a clear ending.	The story has a clear beginning, middle, and end. The writer has attempted to use paragraphs.	The order of events is sometimes confusing, and the story needs more work on the beginning, middle, or end.
Writing Skills	Sentences begin with a capital letter and end with the correct punctuation. Most words are spelled correctly.	Most of the sentences begin with capital letters and end with the correct punctuation, and many of the words are spelled correctly.	This story needs capital letters, punctuation, and some help with spelling.
