Revue de Fonderie Moderne, 1923

Nights of Storytelling Raylene Ramsay, 2011-11-30 Nights of Storytelling is the first book to present and contextualize the founding texts of New Caledonia a country sui generis in the relatively little known French Pacific Extracts from literary ethnographic and historical works in English translation introduce the many voices of a diverse culture as it moves toward independence or the common destiny framed by the 1998 Noumea Agreements These texts reflect the coexistence of two major cultures indigenous and European shaped by the energies and shadows of empire and significantly influenced by one another From the founding stories of Kanak oral tradition to the contradictory reports by Cook and d'Entrecasteaux from the accounts of the French colony's difficult first destiny as a penal settlement to the construction of settler mythologies the book investigates the nature of overlapping spaces created by cultural contact between Europe and the Pacific The final section focuses on the literary effervescence of the contemporary period and its revisiting of colonial histories in the difficult movement toward a national identity Historical romances describe the harshness of life for freed convicts the impossibility of love between a liberated prisoner and a free settler Sagas of late nineteenth century indentured laborers seeking a living on the nickel rich main island speak similarly of physical struggle sacrifice and ultimately of contribution to the country s development and the right to a place in the new land Kanak texts disseminate that community s oral culture and largely silenced voice through the printed word In a world still moving from colonial to postcolonial frames the engagement of these works with vital contemporary questions of historical legacy legitimacy and cultural hybridity is intensely political Aesthetics is a political ethics as the different communities of New Caledonia experiment with artistic and textual forms to write their distinctive place in the land Nights of Storytelling is a collaborative work complemented by La nuit des contes a subtitled DVD of images and text which features key works read or spoken generally in the original French It provides visual and aural access for the book s Anglophone readers to the specific cultural linguistic and geographic contexts of these historical and literary works

Convergences and Interferences ,2016-09-12 How does one imagine plurality How does one find new strategies for writing diversity and polyphony How does one read the most challenging creative and critical works of the present time This bi lingual volume of twelve English and eight French papers proposes to breach linguistic critical frontiers by placing careful analysis of texts from different language traditions in a multi lingual and multi cultural dialogue In this collection of theoretically and politically aware close readings of contemporary cultural production the focus of analysis rests on the multiple and complex global convergences and interferences of cultural influences The collection foregrounds the work of innovative writers who seek to express the ungraspable presence of cultural newness at the same time as situating themselves in the richness of detail of local lives This volume most particularly finds a balance of critical approach between the everyday attempts at negotiation and survival and the insight brought to the reader by postcolonial syncretic and feminist theoretical analysis
