Property, Institutions, and Social Stratification in Africa Franklin Obeng-Odoom, 2020-03-26 In this book Franklin Obeng Odoom seeks to debunk the existing explanations of inequalities within Africa and between Africa and the rest of the world using insights from the emerging field of stratification economics Using multiple sources including archival and historical material and a wide range of survey data he develops a distinctive approach that combines traditional institutional economics such as social protection and reasonable value property and the distribution of wealth with other insights into Africa's development. While looking at the Africa-wide situation, Obeng Odoom also analyses the experiences of inequalities within specific countries; he primarily focuses on Ghana while also drawing on experiences in Botswana and Mauritius.

Comprehensive and engaging Property Institutions and Social Stratification in Africa is a useful resource for teaching and research on Africa and the Global South.
