1. What does Huck's reaction to being "dressed" by the Widow Douglas suggest about his personality?
Huck is not interested in being "civilized" and this reveals his adventurous and rebellious nature. He values his freedom and preferring his previous life where he felt free to act as he pleased.
2. Mr. Watson is a devout Christian, quite a good (Jung) What can the reader infer about society in the setting of the novel?
From Mr. Watson's ownership of Jim, the reader can infer that society held common and accepted it as morally and widely accepted, even by those who considered themselves morally superior to others.

Chapter 1 Introduction

8. In chapter 4, Jim predicts Buck's future using a "right" method. Why do you think Twain includes this event? How does it further develop characterization and what other purpose might it serve?

100

12. How does the new judge tell Huck, and what lesson does the judge learn?
The new judge tells Huck to letting Huck to go into his father's custody and something to refuse, Huck's father, Huck's father quickly accuses the judge wrong by telling his new judge for nothing and mostly telling about in the night. The judge learns that some people like Huck's father, cannot be so easily believed.

11. Where does Huck's father take him, and why does Huck fear the man? Is he scary, from before? Huck's father takes him to a cabin in the woods and beats him and roasts him in the cabin. Huck fears the man is scary from before because he realizes that it is his only option to escape his father's abuse.
12. How does Huck's father react to hearing a free-black man is town? What does this reveal about his character and beliefs?
- Huck's father is outraged that a black man is well-dressed, educated, and even has the right to vote, which he says is an insult to himself and others who consider themselves superior based solely on their race. This reaction reveals his deeply rooted hatred and ignorance, as well as his sense of entitlement and superiority.
