Language Policy In Britain And France Dennis Ernest Ager:

Language Policy in Britain and France Dennis Ernest Ager, 1995-02-01 Examines the making of language policy and language policy itself in Britain and France looking at how disciplines such as sociolinguistics and the analysis of the political process help in studying language policy and policymaking Details stages methods and outcomes of the policymaking process and compares policies in the two countries with case studies on areas including the Welsh Language Act of 1993 and language policy for immigrants

Neo-Calvinism and the French Revolution James Eglinton, George Harinck, 2014-08-28 The French Revolution was the scene of much intellectual and social upheaval Its impact touched a wide range of subjects the relationship of the church to the state social relationships science literature fashion philosophy and theology Although the French Revolution s momentum was felt across Europe and North America it met a particularly interesting response in the Netherlands at that time the scene of a burgeoning neo Calvinist movement In that context the likes of Groen van Prinsterer Abraham Kuyper and Herman Bavinck responded to the French Revolution s ideals and influence in a variety of intellectual and practical ways This book approaches that Dutch response from a range of historical and theological perspectives and in so doing explores the relationship between the French Revolution and the development of neo Calvinism Beginning with historical portraits of Bavinck and Kuyper in relation to the Revolution the perspectives offered also include amongst others the place of multilingualism in neo Calvinism and the Revolution neo Calvinist and Revolutionary approaches to fashion a dialogue between Kuyperian theology and Kieskowski s Three Colours trilogy and a contemporary neo Calvinist critique of French la cit This book forms part of a wider Project neo Calvinism supported by the Theologische Universiteit Kampen and the VU University Amsterdam

The State, the Activists and the Islanders Robert J. Blackwood, 2008-05-22 This analysis of language policy on Corsica provides the first study of the three levels of language policy existing on the Mediterranean island of Corsica It focuses on the key participants the State the language activists and the islanders in the language debate that has taken place across the island since its purchase by France This book is informed by recent work on language planning both theoretical and relating to specific case studies At the same time it engages with trends in sociolinguistics over the past decades which have included language planning in their investigations of languages in contact language obsolescence and language death A central premise of this book is that the three discrete categories of participants in the language debate are closely interrelated and that the status and position of Corsican in relation to French cannot be understood without a thorough exploration of these three strands This volume will appeal to researchers and students in French Studies sociolinguistics and especially language policy
