Caught Between Love and Lust Mosiur Rehman, Love is a taboo in Indian society and arranged marriage is considered most sacred and pure. We are born free but constitutional and religious laws bind us yet we break them sometimes in curiosity to do the forbidden. The story is based on the concept of following the sexual desires and later conquering them. Alam, the male lead, is a Bengali teenager who is sent to Madurai for studies where he falls in the web of love and lust. Their intimacy leads to addiction and seeking pleasure from his aunt. She is in marriage and has three kids but her hunger to have a younger body in bed with her grows every day. Teen age sex is something that cannot be forsaken easily; the body favours the emotion so much that if one tires, the other puts it to a high spirit. Such is the situation with Alam. If his days are filled with him playing her, the nights are occupied with her aunt toying him unless one day the husband discovers about the relationship of his wife and his nephew. Will society accept them? Was their fault forgivable? Alam was ready to accept the answer to these questions with a sound uninfluenced mind. But before he could do so, he finds out that he was a mere bait. The prey was someone else. The woman left the boy toy for someone she is actually after and that puts the husband and him on the same plane. The second half of the book tells the story of Alam after few years when finally Alam meets the love of his life, Lucy, a girl who loved him from his school times. But the questions arise again: Will the true love of Alam's life forgive him for such an unethical act? Will she accept him? How long does one suffer to wash away his mistakes?
