Preparation Standards for Early Interventionists Early Childhood Special Educators developed by the Division for Early Childhood DEC and Council for Exceptional Children CEC in 2020 as well as the DEC Recommended Practices What Teachers Need to Know About Students with Disabilities Peter Westwood,2009-08-01 This book provides a concise overview of a wide range of disabilities that have an impact on students learning and development Main topics include intellectual disability autism Asperger s syndrome other pervasive developmental disorders language disorders physical and health impairments vision and hearing impairments and emotional and behavioural disorders It describes clearly the main features of each disability the priority needs of individuals with the disability and effective methods for teaching these students Peterson's Graduate & Professional Programs: An Overview--Profiles of Institutions Offering Graduate & Professional Work Peterson's,2011-06-01 Graduate Professional Programs An Overview Profiles of Institutions Offering Graduate Professional Work contains more than 2 300 university college profiles that offer valuable information on graduate and professional degree programs and certificates enrollment figures tuition financial support housing faculty research affiliations library facilities and contact information Educational Psychology Steven R. Wininger,Antony D. Norman,Bruce W. Tuckman,2025-01-07 Educational Psychology distills the latest research into actionable steps to help students build a solid evidence based teaching plan as they prepare to go into the classroom This text takes a meta cognitive approach asking students to think about their dual role as both teachers and learners so they can understand not just what to do in the classroom but the why behind it Motivation is at the heart of Educational Psychology The authors address the challenges of fostering motivation by offering a practical framework for teachers This text helps teachers enhance student motivation and links it to other key themes and concepts discussed in the book Rather than taking an encyclopedic approach the authors group chapters by topic to help readers remember concepts and connect best practices to big ideas in educational psychology The text blends scholarship with application by using vignettes examples case studies and practical teaching strategies so students be both methodical and creative in their future classrooms The Social Ecology of Resilience Michael Ungar,2011-10-08 More than two decades after Michael Rutter 1987 published his summary of protective processes associated with resilience researchers continue to report definitional ambiguity in how to define and operationalize positive development under adversity The problem has been partially the result of a dominant view of resilience as something individuals have rather than as a process that families schools communities and governments facilitate Because resilience is related to the presence of social risk factors there is a need for an ecological interpretation of the construct that acknowledges the importance of people s interactions with their environments The Social Ecology of Resilience provides evidence for this ecological understanding of resilience in ways that help to resolve both definition and measurement problems Introduction to Counseling Michael Scott Nystul,2015-07-09 Introduction to Counseling by Michael Scott Nystul provides an overview of counseling and the helping professions from the perspective of art and science the science of counseling that generates a knowledge base proven to promote competency and efficacy in the practitioner and the art of using this knowledge base to build skills that can be applied sensitively to clients in a multicultural society The Fifth Edition has been organized into three sections 1 an overview of counseling and the counseling process 2 multicultural counseling and counseling theories and 3 special approaches and settings It continues to address key topics and issues including gender culture and sexual orientation and offers ways to integrate multiculturalism into all aspects of counseling rather than view it as a separate entity Highlighting emerging trends and changes in ethical codes as well as reflecting the latest updates to the Diagnostic Statistical Manual DSM 5 the book successfully illustrates the importance of art and science to modern day counseling

A Parent's Guide to Learning Difficulties Peter Westwood, 2008-03-01 A Parent's Guide to Learning Difficulties has been written for parents who want to understand more about learning difficulties that can be experienced by some children Most parents want to know why their child is having difficulties in learning and what they can do to help improve the situation The title provides parents with a clear explanation of the numerous causes of children's problems in learning and the practical advice provided on methods for helping children in key areas such as reading writing spelling and mathematics can be implemented in home tutoring as well as in the school The emphasis throughout the book is on teaching methods that have been proved by research to be effective While the main focus is on ordinary children with general learning difficulties the author also provides important basic information on the teaching and management of children with intellectual physical and sensory disabilities and autism

Human Evolution and Fantastic Victorian Fiction Anna Neill,2021-06-24 Following the publication of Darwin's On the Origin of Species Victorian anthropology made two apparently contradictory claims it distinguished civilized man from animals and primitive humans and it linked them though descent Paradoxically it was by placing human history in a deep past shaped by minute incremental changes rather than at the apex of Providential order that evolutionary anthropology could assert a new form of human exceptionalism and define civilized humanity against both human and nonhuman savagery This book shows how fantastic Victorian and early Edwardian fictions utopias dystopias nonsense literature gothic horror and children's fables untether human and nonhuman animal agency from this increasingly orthodox account of the deep past As they imagine worlds that lift the evolutionary constraints on development and as they collapse evolution into lived time these stories reveal and even occupy dynamic landscapes of cognitive descent that contest prevailing anthropological ideas about race culture and species difference
