Morris, 2011-11-14 The case for a new way of leadership is compelling Traditional models are struggling to deliver the right results for organisations or individuals and the relationship between organisation and employees is more fragile than ever Too few employees are fully engaged empowered or committed to the organisation of which they are part It is simply not sustainable Drawing on her exploration the influence of consciousness on leadership and her observations and insights as a coach Dr Sarah Morris makes a powerful case for taking ego out of the office Ego less leadership she argues is truly transformational and creates balanced sustainable and high performing teams and environments and delivers exceptional results Drawing upon an original and simple four step model called the Conscious Leadership Model Egoless The Final Frontier in Leadership sets out a practical route towards a more fulfilling way of leading and one which benefits not only leaders themselves but also those they lead Powerful argument case histories and practical exercises open up a whole new approach to leadership and to life Dialogicality in Development Ingrid E. Josephs, 2003-09-30 The crucial nature of developmental theory is the question of relationship between cultural and personal facets of human development Dialogue is a useful concept to specify this relationship from a process oriented perspective In its broadest sense the notion of dialogue entails the interaction between at least two entities persons meanings perspectives out of which novelty can but need not emerge Thus dialogic models are open for developmental questions These issues are examined in this the first volume in which the increasingly popular metaphor of dialogue is systematically applied to developmental issues Dialogue is a multilevel concept and can be understood 1 as a real exchange between two interacting persons 2 as the interaction between culture at large e g stories and narratives and the interacting developing person and 3 as a metaphor for developmental processes in general In the first part of this international volume the concept of dialogue is elaborated by researchers from different disciplines The focus of the second section is on dialogic models in the area of self development The third deals with the dialogical co development of person and culture
