

WRITING A RECOUNT

Recounts retell past events and experiences.

Eg. diaries, newspaper articles, biographies, autobiographies

ORIENTATION

-WHO was involved?

-WHAT happened?

-WHERE did this event take place?

-WHEN and HOW did it happen?

SEQUENCE OF EVENTS

-Important events in the ORDER they happened

-Use PAST TENSE eg. had, ate

-Use FIRST PERSON e.g. I or We, if you are involved or THIRD PERSON if you are not involved

RE-ORIENTATION

-Briefly summarise what happened

Last holidays our family went to Ayers Rock.

We stayed in a lovely hotel.

On the first day we caught a bus out to see a huge rock. I took lots of photos at sunset.

We went to bed early that night because we had to wake up really early to see Ayers Rock at sunrise. We were on the bus before 6.00am. I was so tired but it was worth it. The colours we saw on the rock were amazing.

When we arrived home, we chose the best photos we had taken and put them in a large frame in the hallway.

Our trip to Ayers Rock was a great holiday.

Multiliteracies in World Language Education Yuri Kumagai, Ana López-Sánchez, Sujane Wu, 2015-10-05 Putting a multiliteracies framework at the center of the world language curriculum this volume brings together college level curricular innovations and classroom projects that address differences in meaning and worldviews expressed in learners primary and target languages Offering a rich understanding of languages genres and modalities as socioculturally situated semiotic systems it advocates an effective pedagogy for developing learners abilities to operate between languages Chapters showcase curricula that draw on a multiliteracies framework and present various classroom projects that develop aspects of multiliteracies for language learners A discussion of the theoretical background and historical development of the pedagogy of multiliteracies and its relevance to the field of world language education positions this book within the broader literature on foreign language education As developments in globalization accountability and austerity challenge contemporary academia and the current structure of world language programs this book shows how the implementation of a multiliteracies based approach brings coherence to language programs and how the framework can help to accomplish the goals of higher education in general and of language education in particular

Education and Social Mobility Phillip Brown,Diane Reay,Carol Vincent,2017-10-02

The study of education and social mobility has been a key area of sociological research since the 1950s The importance of this research derives from the systematic analysis of functionalist theories of industrialism Functionalist theories assume that the complementary demands of efficiency and justice result in more meritocratic societies characterized by high rates of social mobility Much of the sociological evidence has cast doubt on this optimistic if not utopian claim that reform of the education system could eliminate the influence of class gender and ethnicity on academic performance and occupational destinations This book brings together sixteen cutting edge articles on education and social mobility It also includes an introductory essay offering a guide to the main issues and controversies addressed by authors from several countries This comprehensive volume makes an important contribution to our theoretical and empirical understanding of the changing relationship between origins education and destinations This timely collection is also relevant to policy makers as education and social mobility are firmly back on both national and global political agendas viewed as key to creating fairer societies and more competitive economies This book was originally published as a special issue of the British Journal of Sociology of Education

The Space Between Us Ryan D. Enos,2017 The Space Between Us brings the connection between geography psychology and politics to life By going into the neighborhoods of real cities Enos shows how our perceptions of racial ethnic and religious groups are intuitively shaped by where these groups live and interact daily Through the lens of numerous examples across the globe and drawing on a compelling combination of research techniques including field and laboratory experiments big data analysis and small scale interactions this timely book provides a new understanding of how geography shapes politics and how members of groups think about each other Enos analysis is punctuated with personal accounts from the field His rigorous research unfolds in accessible writing that will appeal to specialists and non specialists alike illuminating the profound effects of social geography on how we relate to think about and politically interact across groups in
