

Prayer For The Grieving Widow

Dear Lord,

We pray for all grieving widows. Please calm their hearts and souls. Be their shoulder to lean on.

Take away any burden that they may be feeling. Come and take control of their homes. Let them see clearly.

Do not let them want anything. Replace anything they have lost as a result of this tragedy. Let them feel you now more than ever.

We cancel any spirit of poverty from their lives. And we pray that you sustain and strengthen them from now on.

Amen

Carrington, 2019-04-23 God's will surpasses ours. But what happens when His answer to our prayer is no? Do we lose all hope, throw in the towel, and give up? Or do we continue to trust Him, believing that He knows best? Overcoming Grief: I Smile Again chronicles the journey of a widow the first two years immediately following the death of her husband. As she recounts her story of unexpected loss and despair, we are drawn into the sentiments of her heart, empathizing her pain and sorrow as she rides an emotional roller coaster. But when the ride is over, we share in her joy and victory of survival and hope. Building a Ministry of Comfort and Compassion Elaine Cook, 2005-06 For the first time in my life, I finally see purpose for all I have endured with God's amazing Grace I have a compassion for others who are hurting Not necessarily just widows but all hearts I have a sense about people that I can look into a crowd of faces and sense they are hurting I do not know the hurt they are experiencing but I feel their hurt I often speak to various groups about grief or other similar topics and I look across a room and can just feel the look on their faces by searching their hearts I cannot explain it Some often refer to it as the gift of discernment I often refer to it as a curse because after I experience that it drains me emotionally and physically But I feel that God uses those times to keep me fresh and true to my feelings and where they come from in order to help others There is no handbook for women who suddenly find themselves on the downward spiral to widowhood Building a Ministry of Comfort and Compassion isn't a guideline but a source of hope and encouragement on the journey into and through widowhood as experienced by author Elaine Cook
