Tomlinson-Humes Company, 1914 Following the Equator Mark Twain, 1899 As America's finest writer Mark Twain could make entertaining reading and great literature out of almost anything Twain was practically bankrupt in 1894 due to investing heavily into ill advised schemes So in 1895 at age 60 he undertook a two year round the world lecture tour in which he circumnavigated the globe via steamship including stops at the Hawaiian Islands Australia Fiji Islands New Zealand India South Africa and elsewhere He describes a rich range of experiences visiting a leper colony in Hawaii shark fishing in Australia tiger hunting diamond mining in South Africa and riding the rails in India The personalities of the ship's crew and passengers the poetry of Australian place names and the success of women's suffrage in New Zealand among other topics are the focus of his wry humor and redoubtable powers of observation An evocative and highly unique American portrait of nineteenth century travel and custom this book has a serious thread running through it recording Twain's observations of the mistreatments and miseries of mankind Following the Equator Mark Twain, 1976 Following the Equator Mark
